Who Wrote This? Naomi S. Baron, 2023-09-12 Would you read this book if a computer wrote it Would you even know And why would it matter Today s eerily impressive artificial intelligence writing tools present us with a crucial challenge As writers do we unthinkingly adopt AI s time saving advantages or do we stop to weigh what we gain and lose when heeding its siren call To understand how AI is redefining what it means to write and think linguist and educator Naomi S Baron leads us on a journey connecting the dots between human literacy and today s technology From nineteenth century lessons in composition to mathematician Alan Turing s work creating a machine for deciphering war time messages to contemporary engines like ChatGPT Baron gives readers a spirited overview of the emergence of both literacy and AI and a glimpse of their possible future As the technology becomes increasingly sophisticated and fluent it s tempting to take the easy way out and let AI do the work for us Baron cautions that such efficiency isn t always in our interest As AI plies us with suggestions or full blown text we risk losing not just our technical skills but the power of writing as a springboard for personal reflection and unique expression Funny informed and conversational Who Wrote This urges us as individuals and as communities to make conscious choices about the extent to which we collaborate with AI The technology is here to stay Baron shows us how to work with AI and how to spot where it risks diminishing the valuable cognitive and social benefits of being literate

Mapping ASEAN David Carden, 2019-09-10 For half a century ten dynamic nations in Southeast Asia have been implementing a shared vision of economic growth sustainable development and cultural progress Today the economies of those nations are linked inextricably with the future of greater Asia as well as with the United States and the other Western countries With authoritarianism and protectionism on the rise around the world and the catastrophic effects of global warming making action urgent the nations that form the Association of Southeast Asia Nations are more relevant and under greater political and social stress than ever In these illuminating pages David Carden the first American resident ambassador to ASEAN paints a vivid portrait of the regional and global cooperation required to meet today and interconnected future Carden takes us behind the scenes as the leaders of these ten nations work to prepare their countries and their region for the 21st century Carden persuasively argues that the unfolding story of the ASEAN nations is a story for the entire world that we are all increasingly interdependent and confronted with the existential need to solve the same set of challenges

Innovation in China William H.A. Johnson, 2015-07-22 The word innovation is often used today regarding China as if the concept were new to the Eastern country Most people know however that China was a juggernaut in creating new technologies and at one time was the innovation king of the world but that was at least seven centuries ago Today the great oriental power is attempting once again to take the throne of innovation for its own This desire to usurp the throne which had been diligently taken by the West during the Scientific Revolution has placed an almost unrealistic emphasis on innovation In Innovation in China The Tail of the Dragon the author explores the issues and actors involved in making innovation the emphasis in China He uses a simple systems model of innovation and various perceptual lenses The lenses are aimed at the historical economic political legal educational and cultural elements of an innovation based society After reading the book the reader will understand more about how innovation is happening in China and by whom More importantly the reader will begin a journey of learning more about where the country is going as it relentlessly continues its drive to create an innovation based society and to become once again in terms appropriate to its history the Emperor of Innovation
