Me and My Cell Phone Crystal Powell, 2012-04-24 Cell phones and the Internet have been the recipients of in depth research on their increased and rapid integration into everyday life and the innovative appropriations associated with them in many societies The cell phone has attracted particular attention in its perceived abilities to both enhance and destruct social relationships Our increased access to social media and to the cell phone has taken social networking to an unprecedented level These communication technologies are revered by many as great all purpose all positive communication devices in spite of their flaws They are overwhelmingly bestowed with agency and superiority Too often they are idolized with little regard to how they affect and are affected by their users on a personal level The mutual shaping between technology and society is not adequately acknowledged Technologies in spite of the seemingly endless possibilities offered by their many functions can quite literally be sterile and useless objects outside of conscious and tangible human effort Cell phones and the Internet though undoubtedly capable of providing myriad beneficial opportunities for their users need at long last to be put in their place This book is a contribution in that regard Kindled by her own intimate history with her cell phone and a growing curiosity about ICTs in general this book is a culmination of Crystal Powell's thoughts reactions to and interpretations of some of the literature on these technologies The book draws on and critically reviews contributions by some leading authors on the social shaping of ICTs and social media to offer a more nuanced and complex understanding of technology in relation to those who use and are used by it

Beneath the Mountain: An Anti-Prison Reader Mumia Abu-Jamal, Jennifer Black, 2024-07-16 Essential radical texts by enslaved jailed and imprisoned Americans edited by renowned political prisoner Mumia Abu Jamal and activist scholar Jennifer Black Filled with insight and energy this extraordinary book gifts us the opportunity to encounter people's understanding of the fight for freedom from the inside out Ruth Wilson Gilmore author of Golden Gulag and Abolition Geography Martin Luther King told us what he saw when he went to the mountaintop But there's also the foot of the mountain and there are also the regions beneath the surface I want to try to tell you a little something about those regions Angela Y Davis author of Angela Davis: An Autobiography Beneath the Mountain is a reader's guide for understanding the evolution of anti prison tenets This essential core of primary texts provides an arc of insurgent writings by dissidents and revolutionaries who experienced incarceration and state terror first hand With contributions from John Brown Frederick Douglass and Crazy Horse to Assata Shakur Malcolm X and Leonard Peltier it also includes a previously unpublished communiqué from Angela Davis written from jail at the time when she was forging the anti prison critique that has since inspired a national movement Beneath the Mountain offers a record of the historic foundations for the contemporary abolition movement What emerges from these texts is an emancipatory vision that inspires the work being done today a vision centered on organizing and solidarity as an antidote to repression An invaluable resource for readers on both sides of prison walls this compendium of resistance and hard won vision will be essential to all who seek to develop an abolitionist critique and to further an understanding of the nature of repression and liberation Life at DrTom's: Mostly Humorous Anecdotes by a Mostly Retired Cornell Professor Thomas A. Gavin,2013-02 Life at DrTom s is a diverse collection of easy to digest anecdotes about human behavior wildlife children wives and more from the perspective of a retired Ivy League professor DrTom taught classes in biology and conservation at Cornell University for almost 30 years and he conducted research on birds and mammals in the U S and abroad But he has found that observing humans and describing the human condition are as interesting as the study of wild animals DrTom writes with a somewhat cynical view about his own species in a way that will make you say hey I never thought of that Spanning six decades DrTom describes the colorful experiences that vary from studying squirrels on a cattle ranch in Idaho living in the rainforest of Costa Rica attending a geisha like party in Korea playing tennis for Ohio State to smoking a cigar while sipping a scotch in the forest surrounding his New York home These moments have sharpened his power of observation and informed his impression of what makes human behavior so curious But this life long exploration of what makes life interesting has generated the tangible he celebrates the most the memory of these rich encounters Readers will have no difficulty relating to DrTom s observations and conclusions about the experiences he shares You will see yourself in many of the uncanny situations in which he has found himself as a father grandfather husband teacher and retired baby boomer Regardless of your age gender or educational background the prose will make you laugh or pause or think more deeply about what you see around you Uncover Level 3 Student's Book Ben Goldstein,Ceri Jones,2015-06-09 Uncover a whole new world Captivating Discovery Education TM video and stimulating global topics engage teenage learners and spark their curiosity Developed in partnership with Discovery Education TM Uncover combines captivating video and stimulating global topics to motivate students and spark their curiosity fostering more meaningful learning experiences Up to four videos in every unit make learning relevant and create opportunities for deeper understanding Guided step by step activities and personalized learning tasks lead to greater speaking and writing fluency Complete digital support including extra online practice activities and access to the Cambridge Learning Management platform is also available Writer's Choice Writing Assessment and Evaluation Rubrics Grade 12 McGraw-Hill Staff,2000-09 A Postphenomenological Inquiry of Cell Phones Galit Wellner,2015-11-11 Why does the announcement of a new cellphone model ignite excitement and passion Why do most people return home when they forget their cellphones while only few would return for their wallets How did the cellphone technology become so dominant for many of us This book offers an analysis of the historical evolution and of the meanings of this technology in the lives of billions of people The book offers a unique point of view on the cellphone that merges genealogical analysis of its development since the 1990s and philosophical insights into a coherent analytical framework With new concepts like histories of the future and memory prosthesis the book aims to explain the excitement arising from new model announcements and the ever growing dependency on the cellphone through the framing of these experiences in wide philosophical contexts It is the first philosophical analysis of the important roles the cellphone plays in contemporary everydayness

Weed Science - A Plea for Thought - Revisited Robert L. Zimdahl, 2011-09-26 Weed scientists are confident of increasing production through agricultural technology including herbicides but do not must ask if the moral obligation to feed people is sufficient justification for the benefits and harms achieved A continuing rigorous examination of the science s goals that leads to appropriate change is advocated Weed scientists have a research consensus a paradigm Weeds must be controlled Herbicides are the best control technology Agriculture s practitioners should discuss the necessity and risks of their technology Discussion must include scientific evidence and value laden arguments

Living a Marxist Life Andrew Pendakis, 2024-09-19 The last ten years have seen a dramatic upsurge of interest in socialist theory and politics As a recent Washington Post op ed put it We are living in a new social democratic moment People are increasingly drawn to Marxist theory but find it difficult to imagine how it can be integrated practically into an everyday life pervaded by capitalist norms and social practices Often intuitively they agree with Marx s critique of capitalism but don t know how to bridge the gap between their sense of dissatisfaction with the present and a revolutionary solution which can feel indefinitely postponed and remote Living a Marxist Life responds to this disconnect by framing Marxism not as a mere theory but as a practical philosophical truth a lived practice that immediately changes the reality of those experimenting with it From Frida Kahlo to Jean Luc Godard Pablo Picasso to Angela Davis Marxists are not dry theoreticians but embodied agents of a process that is as intensely imaginative and joyful as it is demanding and difficult This book then is a chronicle of radical change a record of the ways our thoughts habits desires actions and emotions can be fundamentally reshaped by an encounter with Marx This book is not an introduction to Marx nor a systematic defense of Marxism Rather it is a self help book that calls into question the very idea of self help a guide to the good life that rejects normative morality and an inspirational manual that promotes philosophy sociology and politics not vague spirituality or religion as solutions to the urgent problems that face us
