These marking guidelines were used as the basis for the official 2016 marking scheme. They were prepared for use by assessors and with assessors, all of whom were required to attend a rigorous standardisation meeting to ensure that the guidelines were consistently and fairly interpreted and applied in the marking of assessed work.

At international meetings, nations are asked regarding the situation of women in the interests of fairness to all participants in the context of an entirely non-political environment.

The ERM will not enter into any discussions or correspondence about any pending guidelines. It is acknowledged that there may be different views about some matters of emphasis or detail in the guidelines, and different interpretations of the guidelines themselves. Hence, the committee's work documents have been limited.
