

The Lightning Thief Lesson Plans

Suggested topics to correlate: Greek mythology, friendship, overcoming adversity

TIPS FOR SUCCESS: The teacher should read the entire literature book as well as this packet before reading it with the class. Each student needs to have his/her own copy of the book. Spend 10-15 minutes daily "playing" a game with the vocabulary words.

Many of the activities used in this packet may be used with any literature book. One, that I have found extremely successful for summarization, is a "game" the students and I created. They named it "Breakout". Here are the rules: Draw a large circle on the board. Give each student a 3" x 5" Post-It. Have each student summarize the chapter using only the front side of the Post-It.

This teaches them to minimize their summaries. Remind the students that a good summary mentions what happened at the beginning, middle and end of the chapter, yet no great detail is given. Once the students are finished, have them place their Post-It inside the circle (with their name on the back of the Post-It). When all the Post-Its are in the circle, as a class, discuss what events should be mentioned in order to be a good summary. The teacher reads each Post-It aloud. If the students feel it was a good summary, it "breaks out" of the circle. Place it outside the circle. If it is not good, explain what is missing and discuss where it belongs. If it is close to breaking out, the students label it, "mostly out" and stick it on the circle, most of it sticking out. If it is missing some criteria, the students label it "mostly in" and it gets placed on the line, most of it sticking in. The ones missing a lot of the criteria remain in the circle. Reward the ones who "break out". After a few practice rounds, I assess this activity: I give the student an "A" if it breaks out, a "B" for mostly out, a "C" for mostly in, a "D" if it remains in the circle and if it has nothing to do with the chapter it will remain in the center of the circle and receive an "F". Even though it is time consuming, the students love to do this activity and it greatly improves their summarization skills.

The "Character Web" page is easy to do. In the center of the circle, have the students put the name of the character. In the outer portion of the web, they place a word that describes the type of person (characteristic) he/she is, for example, greedy, shy, intelligent, etc. In the middle of the web, the students write a description of the situation from the book where the character displayed that characteristic.
