Transatlantic Literature and Author Love in the Nineteenth Century Paul Westover,Ann Wierda Rowland,2016-09-22 This book is about Anglo American literary heritage It argues that readers on both sides of the Atlantic shaped the contours of international English in the 1800s expressing love for books and authors in a wide range of media and social practices It highlights how in the wake of American independence the affection bestowed on authors who became international objects of celebration and commemoration was a major force in the invention of transnational English literature the popular canon defined by shared language and tradition While love as such is difficult to quantify and recover the records of such affection survive not just in print but also in other media in monuments in architecture and in the ephemera of material culture Thus this collection brings into view a wide range of nineteenth century expressions of love for literature and its creators The Musician, 1928

Experiencing Philosophy - Second Edition Anthony Falikowski, Susan Mills, 2022-11-22 Experiencing Philosophy begins with the assumption that philosophy is not merely something you know but also something you experience and participate in The book presents philosophical theories and ideas with reference to their practical relevance to the lives of student readers To this end a number of engaging features and inserts are provided Original Sources Numerous primary readings are included introducing students directly to the philosophical work of diverse thinkers ranging from Plato to Martin Luther King Jr Each reading is thoughtfully excerpted and is followed by reflective questions Philosopher Profiles Abstract ideas are connected to the lives of real historical figures through fascinating biographical profiles Take It Personally To illustrate how philosophy can be useful and relevant each chapter begins by placing the material in a personal context Know Thyself Diagnostics This book takes seriously as did Socrates the Delphic Oracle's dictum to know thyself. Students are given self-diagnostics to explore their own philosophical values, ideals, and beliefs. Philosophers in Action: Philosophy is something you do, not just something you know. Prompts are provided throughout the text, inviting students to conduct thought experiments, analyze concepts, and discuss and debate controversial points. Thinking about Your Thinking: These metacognitive prompts require students to engage in higher-order thinking, not only about the presented readings and ideas but also with respect to their own values, assumptions, and beliefs. Plus, built-in study guides, diagrams, famous philosophical quotations, comics, feature boxes, and more.

The Routledge Companion to Literature and the Global South Alfred J. López, Ricardo Quintana-Vallejo, 2023-10-20. The Routledge Companion Literature and the Global South offers a comprehensive overview of the field at a key moment in its development, a snapshot of where Global South literary studies stands in its second decade. As the aftermath of a string of global cataclysms, since the rise of neoliberal globalization has demonstrated it is the poor, the disenfranchised, and the marginalized who consistently bear the brunt of the suffering. What defines the Global South is the recognition across the world that globalization's promised bounties have not materialized. It has failed as a global master narrative. Global South studies centers on three general areas: Globalization, its aftermath, failure, and how those on the economic bottom survive it. Organized into three parts, this volume consists of original essays by 25 contributors from around the world. Part I focuses on the origins and objects of Global South studies and how this field has come to define and historicize its organizing concept. Part II considers subsequent critical developments in Global South studies, particularly those that embrace interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary approaches. Part III features case studies which highlight a range of applications and interventions. The contributors critique the boundaries and definitions explored in the earlier parts and push settled literatures or methods into new analytical spaces. This innovative collection is an invaluable resource for anyone studying and researching Global South studies and literature, but also those interested in world literature, contemporary literature, postcolonialism, decolonizing the curriculum, critical race studies, gender studies, and politics.
