politics, psychopathology, biography, miscellaneous, dissertations Michael Robinson, 2008 This copiously annotated bibliography documents and examines the whole range of commentary on Strindberg's works and activity in many fields besides the plays for which he is internationally best known. These include his prose fiction and poetry, his work as an historian and natural historian and his relationship to the other arts, most notably his painting. It is concerned with both lasting works of literary and dramatic criticism as well as reviews of his books and plays in the theatre and some more ephemeral material, all of this in several languages. Organised generically and by subject and individual work, the bibliography enables the reader to trace the changing impact of Strindberg and his works in various countries and during different periods. It is thus very much a study in reception as well as a bibliographical record of published material. It traces the developing image of Strindberg and his writing both during his lifetime and in subsequent years and with frequent cross-reference offers a comprehensive overview of a literary and existential project that has rarely been matched for its multifaceted diversity. The bibliography is published in three parts: Volume 1 General Studies 978 0 947623 81 4 and Volume 2 The Plays 978 0 947623 82 1 are also now available. Michael Robinson is Emeritus Professor of Drama and Scandinavian Studies at the University of East Anglia, Norwich.

Gauguin's Vision Belinda Thomson, Frances Fowle, Lesley Stevenson, National Galleries of Scotland, 2005 When Paul Gauguin (1848-1903) painted Vision After the Sermon in the summer of 1888 he was a mature artist who had travelled, exhibited and worked in a variety of media. Today the painting is considered a masterpiece helping to assure Gauguin's fame the world over. Few paintings have given rise to more art historical analysis and critique, more speculation, admiration or recrimination. Accompanying the innovative painting in focus exhibition Gauguin's Vision, this book illuminates one of the most intriguing and famous images in the history of western art. This re-examination of the painting Vision After the Sermon (Jacob Wrestling with the Angel) brings together works by Gauguin, his mentors such as Paul Cézanne and Edgar Degas, and younger contemporaries including Emile Bernard, Paul Sérusier, Maurice Denis and Henri van de Velde. It explores the biographical, pictorial and cultural circumstances that enabled Gauguin to make such a radical statement in paint in 1888. This beautifully illustrated book is available in paperback.

The Religion of Paul the Apostle John Ashton, University Lecturer in New Testament Studies
John Ashton, 2000-01-01 Paul the Apostle has traditionally been viewed as a thinker and theologian and scholars have focused almost exclusively on his ideas rather than on his religious experience In this book a leading New Testament scholar challenges this view of Paul John Ashton demonstrates how closely Paul s own career resembles that of a typical shaman and he shows how every important aspect of Paul s life and ministry may be illuminated by focusing on his experience Drawing not only on Paul s letters but also on contemporary writings in the Jewish and Hellenistic worlds Ashton discusses a number of important issues relevant to the understanding of Paul and to the origins of Christianity whether Paul is properly described as a convert a mystic an apostle a prophet or a charismatic what his attitude was to the Jewish traditions he inherited why he felt called upon to preach not to his fellow Jews but to the Gentiles what accounts for the remarkable success of his strange new Gospel and how we can explain his language of spirit possession Christ lives in me In addressing these issues Ashton demonstrates that to regard Christianity simply as a religion of the word is to ignore a vital truth about its origins

Upon Provincialism Bill Hardwig, 2013 Drawing on tourist literature travelogues and local color fiction about the South Bill Hardwig tracks the ways in which the nation s leading interdisciplinary periodicals especially the Atlantic Monthly Harper s and the Century translated and broadcast the predominant narratives about the late nineteenth century South In many ways he attests the national representation of the South was controlled more firmly by periodical editors working in the Northeast such as William Dean Howells Thomas Bailey Aldrich and Richard Watson Gilder than by writers living in and writing about the region Fears about national unity immigration industrialization and racial dynamics in the South could be explored through the safe and displaced realm of a regional literature that was often seen as mere entertainment or as a picturesque depiction of quaint rural life The author examines in depth the short work of George Washington Cable Charles Chesnut Alice Dunbar Nelson Lafcadio Hearn Mary Noailles Murfree and Thomas Nelson Page in the context of the larger periodical investment in the South Arguing that this local color fiction calls into question some of the lines of demarcation within U S and southern literary and cultural studies especially those offered by identity based models Hardwig returns these writers to the dynamic cultural exchanges within local color fiction from which they initially emerged
