Between Heaven and Earth

Robert A. Orsi, 2013-10-31 Between Heaven and Earth explores the relationships men women and children have formed with the Virgin Mary and the saints in twentieth century American Catholic history and reflects more broadly on how people live in the company of sacred figures and how these relationships shape the ties between people on earth In this boldly argued and beautifully written book Robert Orsi also considers how scholars of religion occupy the ground in between belief and analysis faith and scholarship Orsi infuses his analysis with an autobiographical voice steeped in his own Italian American Catholic background from the devotion of his uncle Sal who had cerebral palsy to a crippled saint Margaret of Castello to the bond of his Tuscan grandmother with Saint Gemma Galgani Religion exists not as a medium of making meanings Orsi maintains but as a network of relationships between heaven and earth involving people of all ages as well as the many sacred figures they hold dear Orsi argues that modern academic theorizing about religion has long sanctioned dubious distinctions between good or real religious expression on the one hand and bad or bogus religion on the other which marginalize these everyday relationships with sacred figures This book is a brilliant critical inquiry into the lives that people make for better or worse between heaven and earth and into the ways scholars of religion could better study of these worlds

this dramatic change of focus is attributed in the introduction of the book to the student led rebellion that erupted following the RhodesMustFall campaign which started at the University of Cape Town on 9 March 2015 Key to the rebellion was the students opposition to what they dubbed colonial education and a clamour for among others a decolonised curriculum This book is a direct response to this clarion call The United States Army and Navy Journal and Gazette of the Regular and Volunteer Forces ,1909 A Standard History of the Hanging Rock Iron Region of Ohio Eugene B.
