Worth Writing About Jake Wizner, 2023-10-10
 Who am I? This is the question that many adolescents ask during the turbulent middle and high school years
 In Worth Writing About: Exploring Memoir with Adolescents Jake Wizner addresses how searching for the answer to this question leads his students to reflection, to reading, and ultimately to deeper, more meaningful writing
 Wizner, a 20-year teaching veteran, believes that a well-designed memoir unit not only aligns with the Common Core State Standards but also forges community in the classroom, encourages kids to read nonfiction, and works wonders with students who struggle with their writing or with their lives
Worth Writing About addresses the most common challenges teachers face when teaching memoir writing
 How do you help students who say that nothing interesting has happened in their lives?
 How do you help students balance what is meaningful with what is too personal to share?
 How do you help students overcome the "I don't remember" syndrome?
 Wizner delves into the craft of writing, from using mentor texts to crafting leads and memorable endings
 He uses student models from his own classroom to show the deep, important work his students produce during the memoir unit
 By writing about themselves and how they view the world around them, students discover more about themselves and how they want to move forward in the future
Student Assessment Dylan Wiliam, Douglas Fisher, Nancy Frey, 2024-05-17
 Fuel student-driven success and enhance learning with better assessment
 What if there was a better way to collect and interpret assessment data that could strengthen the link between teaching and learning?
Student Assessment: Better Evidence, Better Decisions, Better Learning is the innovative guide to show you how it's done and done right
 This unique book offers a new assessment model focused on decision-driven data collection and provides an arsenal of tools for collecting better evidence to increase student learning
 You will learn the importance of assessment in the teaching and learning process, what a decision-driven data collection assessment model looks like, and how it differs from a more traditional data-driven decision-making model how to effectively establish learning intentions and success criteria within assessments to actively engage students in their own learning how to implement an array of assessment tools that yield better evidence and improve decision-making how to address the challenge of ensuring authenticity in students' responses when AI-generated content is becoming more common
 With this guide in hand, you'll be ready for a better approach to assessment, armed with practical tools and strategies to ensure students can analyze, synthesize, adapt, critique, and most importantly, take charge of their own learning
