Project and Program Management Mitchell L. Springer,2019-03-15 Choosing the right people to carry out a project is essential to its success When multiple projects are combined into a complex program the human aspect becomes even more important This book is the first to truly balance a complete account of the technical aspects of project and program management with a practical approach to understanding and developing the core competencies required to accomplish desired goals On the technical side this book is a complete introduction to predicting costs setting schedules and assessing risks On the people side it sheds new light on how to mold different personality types into a team how to motivate the team's members and how to produce extraordinary results. The author details the essential parts of the program management approach describing the best way to define, organize and schedule the work to be done, identifying risks and controlling costs during the whole process. This fourth edition has been significantly revised with every chapter updated. The volume considers the magnitude of recent social, political and technological changes and the impact is represented throughout this book. Included are insights from numerous students who bring to the forefront their current real world practices from their individual businesses, industries and disciplines.

Skills for Helping Professionals Anne M. Geroski, 2016-01-04. Written specifically for non clinical undergraduate students but also relevant to graduate studies in helping professions. Skills for Helping Professionals by Anne M. Geroski focuses on helping students develop the skills they need to effectively initiate and maintain helping relationships. After exploring the literature identifying critical components of helping relationships and briefly reviewing developmental and helping theories, the text covers such topics as the helping process, self awareness and ethics in helping, and then focuses on specific helping skills such as listening and hearing, empathy, reflecting, paraphrasing, questioning, clarifying, exploring and offering feedback, encouragement and psycho education. The final chapters focus on individuals in crisis and helping in groups.

Nurse as Educator: Principles of Teaching and Learning for Nursing Practice Susan B. Bastable, 2021-12-15. Nurse as Educator: Principles of Teaching and Learning for Nursing Practice Sixth Edition prepares nurse educators, clinical nurse specialists and nurse practitioners and students for their ever increasing role in patient teaching, health education and health promotion. One of the most outstanding and unique features of this text is that it focuses on multiple audiences, therefore making it applicable to both undergraduate and graduate nursing courses. The Sixth Edition features coverage of relevant topics in nursing education and health promotion such as health literacy, teaching people with disabilities, the impact of gender and socioeconomic factors on learning, technology for teaching and learning and the ethical, legal and economic foundations of the educational process.

Transforming Early Head Start Home Visiting Bridget A. Walsh, Jennifer A. Mortensen, 2019-10-29. Research on home visiting shows that Early Head Start (EHS) home based programs benefit from additional training and resources that streamline philosophy and content. In this essential guide, Walsh and Mortensen propose that alignment with Family Life Education's (FLE) strengths based methodology results in greater consistency through a model of prevention education and collaboration with families. This text is the first to outline linkages between FLE and EHS home visiting. It explores a qualitative study of FLE integrated in a current EHS home based program and application of FLE methodology to home visiting topics. This approach will influence professional practice and provide a foundation for developing evidence based home visiting practices. Online content accompanies the text with videos demonstrating the FLE approach in action and discussion questions to encourage engagement with and understanding of the core material. Transforming Early Head Start Home Visiting: A Family Life Education Approach is essential reading for upper level undergraduate and masters students in family studies and early childhood education as well as practitioners working with children and families
