Elmer The Elephant Topic:

Inclusion, Diversity, and Intercultural Dialogue in Young People's Philosophical Inquiry Ching-Ching Lin, Lavina Sequeira, 2017-07-20 The ever shifting cultural and linguistic landscapes in contemporary societies create new urgency for an intersectional thematic study of diversity philosophy and education As educators how do we transform the vision of cultural and linguistic diversity into a wealth of resources for learning How do we actively engage cultural and linguistic diversities in philosophical inquiry with young people How do we translate the philosophical notion of cultural and linguistic diversity into pedagogical practices The chapters in this book respond to the task of teaching philosophy in the context of increased mobility in the new global reality By complicating the situated and fluid nature of contemporary classrooms this book challenges the normalizing tendency often associated with philosophy education Each chapter offers a unique perspective in understanding the profound embeddedness of philosophy education in broader sociocultural contexts and prioritizes diversity in the classroom community of inquiry By carefully incorporating a broad range of theoretical perspectives and empirical research this book provides a rich resource for school teachers and educators who wish to engage diverse learners in philosophical inquiry In doing so it reaffirms the value of philosophy education as a proactive approach to democratic education Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1958 Includes Part 1 Number 1 2 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals January December The Social Construction of Literacy Jenny Cook-Gumperz, 2006-08-17 Literacy the ability to produce and interpret written text has long been viewed as the basis of all school achievement a measure of success that defines both an educated person and an educable one In this volume a team of leading experts raise questions central to the acquisition of literacy Why do children with similar classroom experiences show different levels of educational achievement And why do these differences in literacy and ultimately employability persist By looking critically at the western view of a literate person the authors present a perspective on literary acquisition viewing it as a socially constructed skill whereby children must acquire discourse strategies that are socially approved This extensively revised second edition contains an updated introduction and bibliography This volume will continue to have far reaching implications for educational theory and practice Animal Pursuits Richard J. Atkinson, 2012-11-16 The book is a fantasy about animals containing a lot of trivia facts fantasy and a myriad of pun aspects of the animals What might happen if after the destruction of the human race animals took over This is a tale about the malicious murder of a few animals and the resulting chase arrest and prosecution of the perpetrators It is told by an elephant to his grand calves The story covers the murder and the investigation by Chief Inspector Bobby Bloodhound and his renowned team of detectives They investigate the ant colonies the beehives the ocean the bird sanctuary the farm and the wild jungle There is a chase a capture and a court case to follow Many human comparisons can be made from the behavior and actions of the animals involved 100 Ideas for Secondary Teachers: Teaching Philosophy and Ethics John L.
