Sexual Restraint and Aesthetic Experience in Victorian Literary Decadence Sarah Green, 2023-03-09 Sarah Green shows how late Victorian Decadent literature paradoxically treats sexual restraint as healthy and aesthetically productive

The London readers. First (-Sixth) reader London readers, 1878 The London and Paris ladies' magazine of fashion, ed. by Mrs. Edward Thomas Jane Thomas (née Pinhorn), 1879 Reading, Wanting, and Broken Economics

Simon R. Frost, 2021-05-01 Uses a historical study of bookselling and readers as a way to question and rethink our understanding of the market for symbolic goods Combining historical study theorization and experimental fiction this book takes commodity culture and book retail around 1900 as the prime example of a market of symbolic goods With the port of Southampton England as his case study Simon R Frost reveals how the city's bookshops with their combinations of libraries haberdashery stationery and books sustained and were sustained by the dreams of ordinary readers and how together they created the values powering this market The goods in this market were symbolic and were not consumed but read Their readings were created between other readers and texts in happy disobedience to the neoliberal laws of the free market Today such reader created social markets comprise much of the world's branded economies which is why Frost calls for a new understanding of both literary and market values Payment in Love Penny Jordan, 2018-02-12 Read this classic romance by New York Times bestselling author Penny Jordan now available for the first time in e book Indebted to the tycoon To save her father's life Heather Burns must swallow her pride and ask billionaire tycoon Kyle Bennett for help Six years ago her childish jealousy and deep insecurity drove Kyle away from the only home he'd ever known No matter how much Heather regrets what she did she knows Kyle will never forgive her but he will make her pay Back in each other's lives the chemistry between them sizzles like never before But can she trust the man she once betrayed with something as precious as her heart Originally published in 1987 A Perilous Marriage (a hero pretends to be in love with the heroine Regency romance) Ruth Ann Nordin, All Eris wants is a love match Miss Eris Tumilson longs for a love match Unfortunately being a wallflower who spends most of her time reading and doing embroidery isn't the kind of thing that attracts gentlemen But at long last the spinster gets her chance Her brother arranges a marriage for her with the Duke of Jowett When her new husband dies on their wedding night her hopes are dashed There will be no love match There's not even the prospect of a child on the way Though a widow she might as well still be a spinster Then Mr Charles Duff comes along to visit her and something begins to stir up within her that she was determined to put behind her once and for all the desire for a love match All Charles wants is to prove his friend was murdered Charles would rather focus on his investments than take a wife But when his friend dies on his wedding night he knows it's not from natural causes His friend was murdered And he's sure Eris did it The problem He has to prove it since no one believes him So he comes up with a plan to make Eris believe he's fallen in love with her Little does he realize that as soon as he steps through the doorway of her townhouse he'll start to discover that this shy wallflower

is a hidden gem among ladies and it ll be difficult to tell the difference between pretending to be in love and really being in love Charles originally showed up in Kidnapping the Viscount Eris originally showed up in The Reclusive Earl London Society ,1874 The Distance of Irish Modernism John Greaney,2022-06-16 The Distance of Irish Modernism interrogates the paradox through which Irish modernist fictions have become containers for national and transnational histories while such texts are often oblique and perverse in terms of their times and geographies John Greaney explores this paradox to launch a metacritical study of the modes of inquiry used to define Irish modernism in the 21st century Focused on works by Samuel Beckett Elizabeth Bowen John McGahern Flann O'Brien and Kate O'Brien this book analyses how and if the complex representational strategies of modernist fictions provide a window on historical events and realities Greaney deploys close reading formal analysis narratology and philosophical accounts of literature alongside historicist and materialist approaches as well as postcolonial and world literature paradigms to examine how modernist texts engage the cultural memories they supposedly transmit Emphasizing the proximities and the distances between modernist aesthetic practice and the history of modernity in Ireland and beyond this book enables a new model for narrating Irish modernism Modern Love Marcus Collins,2006-06 Private life has altered beyond all recognition during the past one hundred years Britain in 1900 was emerging from a Victorian era in which prudery patriarchal authority and pettifogging rules of etiquette were widely perceived to have circumscribed relations between men and women The twentieth century witnessed a reaction against this system of separate spheres spearheaded by reformers eager that the sexes become each other's equals and intimates Modern Love traces the trajectory of this new model of personal relationships over the course of the twentieth century from its emergence out of the crucible of the suffrage campaign through its reshaping by the women's liberation movement It explores its impact on smut merchants warring couples and teenagers as well as its reception by such diverse figures as Bertrand Russell and Germaine Greer It draws on sources as varied as suffragette propaganda banned sex manuals marriage counseling literature and pin up magazines Marcus Collins teaches modern British history at Emory University Shakespeare Beyond the Green World Todd Andrew Borlik,2023 Unpicking the ecopolitics of Shakespeare's plays at the Stuart court this book establishes that the playwright was remarkably attentive to the environmental issues of his era Combining environmental history with close readings of Shakespearean wordplay original typography and performance conditions this study re-wilds the Renaissance stage falling in love again Ian Cosgrove,2008-09-15 A new travel journal from a gay man who discovered that love is possible second time around much as he wasn't expecting to find it or even knew he was looking for it From Europe through Russia and China down to Hong Kong then left a bit into Vietnam and Cambodia Pop over to Colombia for Christmas dinner and back to take the new bf to see Thailand What a year The Cambridge History of Latina/o American Literature John Morán González,Laura Lomas,2018-02-22 The Cambridge History of Latina/o American Literature emphasizes the importance of understanding Latina/o literature not simply as a US
