

GEORGE vs. GEORGE

There are two sides to every story! This book analyzes the two Georges of the Revolutionary war, George Washington and King George III!

GEORGE WASHINGTON

George Washington was born Feb. 22, 1732 in Virginia. He grew up on a plantation and loved the outdoors. Washington married Martha Custis and they lived at Mount Vernon, a large plantation that employed over a hundred men, women, and children.

KING GEORGE III

King George III was born June 4, 1738 and was the King of the British Empire and American colonies. King George III shared a love for agriculture and the outdoors. He was married to a German princess named Charlotte and they had 15 children!

TENSIONS OVER TAXES

The Proclamation of 1763 stated that the colonists couldn't settle westward to keep the peace with the Native Americans. Colonists like Washington thought this was unfair. To help pay off war debts, Britain taxed the colonies.

DECLARING INDEPENDENCE

In 1776, the colonies formally declared their intent to form a new nation with the Declaration of Independence. Patriots believed that King George was a tyrant who was not upholding their rights as British citizens. Loyalists saw the document as treasonous.

THE REVOLUTION

George Washington's Continental Army, Navy, and Militias fought against King George's British forces made up of Regulars, Hessians, Loyalists, Native Americans, and the powerful Navy.

SURRENDER

The war continued until the battle of Yorktown, VA in 1781. With the help of the French, the Americans cut off any chance of retreat. General Cornwallis surrendered to General Washington, although he cowardly told his second to surrender his sword.

THE AFTERMATH

The peace treaty was signed in Paris on Sept. 3, 1783. King George III continued to work for his people establishing a Royal Academy of Arts, continuing explorations and industry. Washington became the first president, stepping down after two terms so that democracy would prevail.
