Hidden Dragons Bianca D'Arc, Love flourishes when two knights unexpectedly find the woman of their dreams Sir Robert finds a beautiful maiden sobbing by a small waterfall She proves to be a very special woman who can communicate with dragons She lives alone in the forest on the edge of a village Robert and his fighting partner Bear have been sent to investigate When she invites them to shelter from the rain in her barn they accept using her place as a vantage point for their surveillance of the town below Both knights are drawn to the fair maiden Could she be the one to share their lives Their dragon partners certainly think so When they discover a treasonous plot in the village they must act quickly Will they be in time to stop the enemy from gaining a strategic foothold in their land And will they be able to protect the woman who has become precious to them even while the battle rages And most important when the dust settles can they convince her to stay in the Lair with them forever

In The Scene: Ang Lee Ellen Cheshire, 2021-05-04 Ang Lee came to the fore in the 1990s as one of the second wave of Taiwanese directors After studying at New York University Lee returned to Taiwan where over the next three consecutive years he directed three comedy dramas focusing on aspects of the East vs West culture and its impact on the family Pushing Hands The Wedding Banquet Eat Drink Man Woman Considering Lee's background it is surprising that he should be approached to direct the most British of novels Jane Austen's Sense and Sensibility It was a tremendous critical and commercial success Since then Lee's projects have been both eclectic and striking he took on the American suburbs of the 1970s and the war torn American South of the 1860s in The Ice Storm and Ride With The Devil But it was his triumphant return to the East with Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon which has transformed him into an internationally successful director He followed this with his somewhat flawed foray into the Marvel Universe with Hulk His heartbreaking adaptation of Annie Proulx's short story Brokeback Mountain brought him international critical and commercial success But forever the genre and language hopping director Lee's next films were much smaller in scale and reach Lust Caution a Chinese erotic espionage thriller and Taking Woodstock American comedy drama His most recent film was an adaptation of Yann Martel's The Life of Pi pushed the boundaries of CGI animation and showed how a director with great visual flair could enhance a film with 3D His continual desire for embracing new technology divided critics and audiences for Billy Lynn's Long Halftime Walk an adaptation of Ben Fountain's 2012 Iraq war set novel and The Gemini Man with Will Smith ABOUT THE AUTHOR Ellen Cheshire has a BA Hons in Film and English and a MA in Gothic Studies and has taught Film at Undergraduate and A Level She has published books on Bio Pics Audrey Hepburn and The Coen Brothers and contributed chapters to books on James Bond Charlie Chaplin Global Film making Film Form Fantasy Films and War Movies She is also one of a team of four writers for the new A Level WJEC Film Text Book published in 2018 For us she has written In the Scene Jane Campion and In the Scene Ang Lee and contributed to Silent Women Pioneers of Cinema eds Melody Bridges and Cheryl Robson voted best book on Silent Film 2016 and Counterculture UK a celebration eds Rebecca Gillieron

Exploring Intersemiotic Translation Models Haoxuan Zhang, 2023-06-29 This volume sets out a new paradigm in intersemiotic translation research drawing on the films of Ang Lee to problematize the notion of films as the simple binary of transmission between the verbal and non verbal The book surveys existing research as a jumping off point from which to consider the role of audiovisual dimensions going beyond the focus on the verbal as understood in Jakobsonian intersemiotic translation The volume outlines a methodology comprising a system of various models which draw on both translation studies and film studies frameworks with each model illustrated with examples from Ang Lee's Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon Lust Caution and Life of Pi In situating the discussion within the work of a director whose own work straddles East and West and remediates between cultures and semiotic systems Zhang argues for an understanding of intersemiotic translation in which films are not simply determined by verbal source material but through the process of intersemiotic translators mediating non verbal quality determining materials into the final film The volume looks ahead to implications for translation and film research more broadly as well as other audiovisual media This book will appeal to scholars interested in translation studies film studies media studies and cultural studies in general
