No Apologies Katherine Brodsky, 2024-01-30 We as a society are self censoring at record rates Say the wrong thing at the wrong moment to the wrong person and the consequences can be dire Think that everyone should be treated equally regardless of race You re a racist who needs to be kicked out of the online forum that you started Believe there are biological differences between men and women You re a sexist who should be fired with cause Argue that people should be able to speak freely within the bounds of the law You re a fascist who should be removed from your position of authority When the truth is no defense and nuance is seen as an attack self censorship is a rational choice Yet our silence comes with a price When we are too fearful to speak openly and honestly we deprive ourselves of the ability to build genuine relationships we yield all cultural and political power to those with opposing views and we lose our ability to challenge ideas or change minds even our own In No Apologies Katherine Brodsky argues that it s time for principled individuals to hit the unmute button and resist the authoritarians among us who name shame and punish Recognizing that speaking authentically is easier said than done she spent two years researching and interviewing those who have been subjected to public harassment and abuse for daring to transgress the new orthodoxy or criticize a new taboo While she found that some of these individuals navigated the outrage mob better than others and some suffered worse personal and professional effects than others all of the individuals with whom she spoke remain unapologetic over their choice to express themselves authentically In sharing their stories which span the arts education journalism and science Brodsky uncovers lessons for all of us in the silenced majority to push back against the dangerous illiberalism of the vocal minority that tolerates no dissent and to find and free our own voices Exploring Meaningful and Sustainable Intentional Learning Communities for P-20 Educators
