Critique in

Design and Technology Education P John Williams, Kay Stables, 2017-02-21 This book addresses notions of critique in Design and Technology Education facilitating a conceptual and practical understanding of critique and enabling both a personal and pedagogical application to practice Critique can be a frame of mind and may be related to a technology product process or material In a holistic sense critique is an element of a person's technological literacy a fundamentally critical disposition brought to bear on all things technological This book provides a reasoned conceptual framework within which to develop critique and examples of applying the framework to Design and Technology Education The book builds on The Future of Technology Education published by Springer as the first in the series Contemporary Issues in Technology Education In the 21st century an age of knowledge students are called upon to access analyse and evaluate constantly changing information to support personal and workplace decision making and on going innovation A critical Design and Technology Education has an important role to play providing students with opportunities to integrate economic environmental social and technological worlds as they develop and refine their technological literacy Through the design and development of technology they collaborate evaluate and critically apply information developing cognitive and manipulative skills appropriate to the 21st century Critique goes beyond review or analysis addressing positive and negative technological development This book discusses and applies this deeper perspective identifying a clear role for critique in the context of Design and Technology Education

Learning English and Chinese as Foreign Languages Wen-Chuan Lin, 2019-09-19 Learning English and Chinese is becoming increasingly important to the prospects of young people This book compares English as a Foreign Language teaching in Taiwan with Chinese as a Foreign Language education in England in order to highlight how classroom activities are embedded within multiple settings including ethnic or other social group cultures family and community resources and school visions or goals The book illustrates how in Taiwan different ethnic groups recognise access and value English language learning to varying extents Its findings illuminate why some ethnic groups are highly motivated to learn English and are able to gain privileged economic positions in the job market In England access to Chinese is marked by social class and the book argues that this could augment an educational apartheid that already exists in language teaching in secondary schools thereby exacerbating existing inequality

Data-Driven Learning for the Next Generation Peter Crosthwaite, 2019-10-21 Despite advancements in and availability of corpus software in language classrooms facilitating data driven learning DDL the use of such methods with pre tertiary learners remains rare This book specifically explores the affordances of DDL for younger learners testing its viability with teachers and students at the primary and secondary years of schooling It features eminent and up and coming researchers from Europe Asia and Australasia who seek to address best practice in implementing DDL with younger learners while providing a wealth of empirical findings and practical DDL activities ready for use in the pre tertiary classroom Divided into three parts the volume's first section focuses on overcoming emerging challenges for DDL with younger learners including where and how DDL can be integrated into pre tertiary curricula as well as potential barriers to this integration It then considers new cutting edge innovations in corpora and corpus software for use with younger learners in the second section before reporting on actual DDL studies performed with younger learners and or their teachers at the primary and secondary levels of education This book will appeal to post graduate students academics and researchers with interests in corpus linguistics second language acquisition primary and secondary literacy education and language and educational technologies The Church Times ,1900 Scribner's Magazine ... ,1912 The NATS Bulletin National Association of Teachers of Singing (U.S.),1958 Digital Games and Mental Health Rachel Kowert,Christopher J.
