General Technical Report RM., 1988. Assistive Technology: From Research to Practice P. Encarnação, L. Azevedo, G.J. Gelderblom, 2013-09-09. Assistive Technology (AT) is an umbrella term indicating any product or technology-based service that enables people of all ages with activity limitations in their daily life, education, work, or leisure. It is a highly interdisciplinary field encompassing research, development, manufacture, supply, provision, and policy. This book presents the proceedings of the 12th biennial European conference of the Association for the Advancement of Assistive Technology in Europe (AAATE) 2013 held in Vilamoura, Portugal, in September 2013. The full papers included here cover a diverse range of subjects including ageing, disability, and technology accessibility in Europe; ambient assisted living; AT and Cloud computing; communication access for all; monitoring and telecare; and user perspective, to name but a few. The aim of the AAATE conference is to promote a more effective dialogue between manufacturers, researchers, developers, professionals, and end users, and this book will be of interest to all those directly or indirectly involved in the field of AT.
