Zebras Never Die Sam Mphuthi, 2013-08 Zebras Never Die is a fictional narrative drawing parallels between developments in the state of Zimbabwe and the history and experiences of an ordinary national Gura Masango. The main theme of the book is the resilience and humanity of the Bajwe people, the natives of Zimbabwe as characterised by Gura and his ancestry under both colonial and postcolonial oppression. The cultural values evident in the work ethic and generosity of Gura and his kinsmen prove to be the ultimate basis for the survival and future prospects of the nation as opposed to the war of liberation which indeed achieved political freedom and initially seemed to have delivered the promise of everlasting prosperity but was hijacked through contrived institutional arrangements by Batho, father of the people Mokaba and his cohort who for three decades looted the wealth of the nation and felt unaccountable for the free fall of the economy. A

Hidden History of Youth Development in South Africa Margaret Perrow, 2021-03-15 Drawing on two decades of interviews and ethnographic fieldwork 1998-2018, this book presents a unique and multi-faceted history of youth development in South Africa through the lens of a South African non-governmental organization (NGO) prominent in youth development from the mid-1980s until 2008. The book weaves history, ethnography and discourse analysis to contextualize the Joint Enrichment Project (JEP) in the politics and history of South African education. It examines JEP's role leading up to and during South Africa's transition to democracy, its work and influence in post-apartheid South Africa and the continued relevance of its legacy to contemporary initiatives seeking to address youth development and social justice. While JEP repeatedly repositioned itself as an organization from fighting the effects of apartheid on young people to becoming a potential partner with the new African National Congress (ANC) led government, its most significant role may have been to reposition people. After tracing JEP's twenty-year history, the book focuses on the participants in a 1998 Youth Work Scheme, exploring their learning experiences and the program's immediate impact on their lives. It then revisits these participants twenty years later in 2018, analyzing their life trajectories after JEP and comparing them with the life trajectories of former JEP staff over the same period, shedding light on broader patterns of socio-economic reproduction and change in the country. The book concludes with a discussion of a perennial paradox facing youth development institutions. This book will be of great interest to academics, researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of education, international development, anthropology and African studies.
