Kenya Universities September Intake 2015:

The Refugee Crisis and Religion Luca Mavelli, Erin Wilson, 2016-12-01 The current refugee crisis sweeping Europe and much of the world closely intersects with largely neglected questions of religion Moving beyond discussions of religious differences what can we learn about the interaction between religion and migration Do faith based organisations play a role within the refugee regime How do religious traditions and perspectives challenge and inform current practices and policies towards refugees This volume gathers together expertise from academics and practitioners as well as migrant voices in order to investigate these interconnections It shows that reconsidering our understanding and approaches to both could generate creative alternative responses to the growing global migration crisis Beginning with a discussion of the secular religious divide and how it shapes dominant policy practices and counter approaches to displacement and migration the book then goes on to explore and deconstruct the dominant discourse of the Muslim refugee as a threat to the secular Christian West The discussion continues with an exploration of Christian and Islamic traditions of hospitality showing how they challenge current practices of securitization of migration and concludes with an investigation of the largely unexplored relation between gender religion and migration Bringing together leading and emerging voices from across academia and practice in the fields of International Relations migration studies philosophy religious studies and gender studies this volume offers a unique take on one of the most pressing global problems of our time Contemporary Challenges to Human Rights Law

Richard Lang, Jack Clayton Thompson, Claire-Michelle Smyth, 2020-04-30 This collection of essays highlights the many problems and challenges facing human rights law today Bringing together academics practitioners and NGOs it examines some of the contemporary challenges facing human rights law and practice in England Northern Ireland the Republic of Ireland France and America It is clear that we live in a time where human rights are in crisis A decade of austerity measures at the domestic regional and international levels evidently has had a detrimental effect on the protection of human rights Cuts to social spending have resulted a failing social welfare system a health service buckling under pressure unprecedented rises in homelessness and child poverty and the emergence of the working poor and zero hours contracts Austerity famine civil war oppressive governmental regimes and climate change have seen vast migrations resulting in a resurrection of far right wing ideology In the UK this is seen in what can only be described as propaganda and scaremongering during the campaign for Brexit and in subsequent political elections evidenced by the increase in racially motivated hate crime within the UK The landscape of human rights is such that it has resulted in some beginning to question are human rights rights at all Guidebook to Education in the Commonwealth Commonwealth Secretariat, 2012 Guidebook showcasing successful innovative education initiatives to help meet the MDGs and Education for All targets from around the Commonwealth in a concise and easy to use format Provides policy makers with examples of solutions that will assist them in devising strategies to counter their own educational challenges Sharing Higher Education's Promise beyond the Few in Sub-Saharan Africa

Peter Darvas, Shang Gao, Yijun Shen, Bilal Bawany, 2017-11-15 Despite a spectacular expansion of the higher education sector in Sub Saharan Africa the supply of tertiary education has generally failed to keep pace with demand and the region continues to lag all other regions in terms of access to tertiary education This is in part a consequence of deeply entrenched patterns of inequitable access to higher education and the perpetuation of what researchers refer to as elite systems To date access to tertiary education in Sub Saharan Africa has unduly benefitted students drawn from the region's wealthiest households and overall enrollment remains disproportionately male and metropolitan These factors stifle the catalytic potential of higher education corroding its potential for driving economic growth and sustaining poverty reduction Instead patterns of access to tertiary education have generally reinforced and reproduced social inequality instead of eroding its pernicious social and economic effects This report aims to inform an improved understanding of equity in tertiary enrollment in Sub Saharan African countries and to examine the extent to which inequity functions as a bottleneck inhibiting the ability of African universities to effectively drive improvements in overall quality of life and economic competitiveness In our survey of the evidence we also aim to identify which policies most effectively address the challenge of promoting equity of access in SSA tertiary education systems In order to achieve these objectives the report collects generates and analyzes empirical evidence on patterns of equity examines the underlying causes of inequity and evaluates government policies for addressing inequity

COVID-19 and women's intersectionalities in Africa Ashwanee Budoo-Scholtz, Adetokunbo Johnson, 2023-05-23 COVID 19 has become one of the most severe issues dominating discussions on the agendas of states globally and across the African continent since its emergence in 2019 The COVID 19 pandemic has regrettably brought into sharp focus the continued multiple and intersecting forms of discrimination faced by women and girls in Africa because of their intersecting identities Yet paradoxically although African women are disproportionately affected by the crisis they are largely invisible in the responses Several African states and governments have taken different policy measures in response to the pandemic These responses have taken different dimensions including shutting down economies imposition of lockdowns coercive quarantine measures with police enforcement and criminal consequences for offenders violating these rules Unfortunately these responses have reinforced and amplified women s disproportionate disadvantage and gender inequalities in Africa Against this backdrop this book asks the intersectional question about women s experiences during the COVID 19 pandemic in Africa Applying an intersectional human rights lens involves questioning how the intersecting identities that African women embody affect their experiences of the COVID 19 pandemic

The Cult of Smart Fredrik deBoer, 2020-08-04 Named one of Vulture s Top 10 Best Books of 2020 Leftist firebrand Fredrik deBoer exposes the lie at the heart of our educational system and demands top to bottom reform Everyone agrees that education is the key to creating a more just and equal world and that our schools are broken and failing Proposed reforms variously target incompetent teachers corrupt union practices or outdated curricula but no one acknowledges a scientifically proven fact that we all understand intuitively Academic potential varies between individuals and cannot be dramatically improved In The Cult of Smart educator and outspoken leftist Fredrik deBoer exposes this omission as the central flaw of our entire society which has created and perpetuated an unjust class structure based on intellectual ability Since cognitive talent varies from person to person our education system can never create equal opportunity for all Instead it teaches our children that hierarchy and competition are natural and that human value should be based on intelligence These ideas are counter to everything that the left believes but until they acknowledge the existence of individual cognitive differences progressives remain complicit in keeping the status quo in place This passionate voice driven manifesto demands that we embrace a new goal for education equality of outcomes We must create a world that has a place for everyone not just the academically talented But we ll never achieve this dream until the Cult of Smart is destroyed Schooling as
