Geographers Geoffrey Martin, 2015-12-14

Geographers is an annual collection of studies on individuals who have made major contributions to the development of geography and geographical thought. Subjects are drawn from all periods and from all parts of the world and include famous names as well as those less well known including explorers, independent thinkers and scholars. Each paper describes the geographer's education, life and work and discusses their influence and spread of academic ideas. Each study includes a select bibliography and a brief chronology. The work includes a general index and a cumulative index of geographers listed in volumes published to date. Published under the auspices of the International Geographical Union.

Anthology on Caring Peggy L. Chinn, 1991
The chapters in this Anthology on Caring in the words of editor Peggy L. Chinn PhD RN FAAN express the idea, the ideal and the practice of caring. This collection of articles presents many views of the caring phenomenon in nursing. Chapters such as The Importance of Knowing What to Care About and Caring for the Environment underscore the importance of caring to healthy living. Read about culture specific care in close knit societies such as the Old Order Amish. Rediscover why social activism is necessary in Health Promotion, Caring and Nursing. These essays will remind us as nurses to care for ourselves and the people around us.
