

It was at Colchester, in Essex, that those people left me; and I have a notion in my head that I left them there (that is, that I hid myself and would not go any farther with them), but I am not able to be particular in that account; only this I remember, that being taken up by some of the parish officers of Colchester, I gave an account that I came into the town with the gypsies, but that I would not go any farther with them, and that so they had left me, but whither they were gone that I knew not, nor could they expect it of me; for though they send round the country to inquire after them, it seems they could not be found.

I was now in a way to be provided for; for though I was not a parish charge upon this or that part of the town by law, yet as my case came to be known, and that I was too young to do any work, being not above three years old, compassion moved the magistrates of the town to order some care to be taken of me, and I became one of their own as much as if I had been born in the place.

In the provision they made for me, it was my good hap to be put to nurse, as they call it, to a woman who was indeed poor but had been in better circumstances, and who got a little livelihood by taking such as I was supposed to be, and keeping them with all necessities, till they were at

Ce fut à Colchester, en Essex, que ces gens m'abandonnèrent; et j'ai dans la tête la notion que c'est moi qui les abandonnai (c'est-à-dire que je me cachai et ne voulus pas aller plus loin avec eux), mais je ne saurais rien affirmer là-dessus. Je me rappelle seulement qu'ayant été prise par des officiers de la paroisse de Colchester, je leur répondis que j'étais venue en ville avec les Égyptiens, mais que je ne voulais pas aller plus loin avec eux, et qu'ainsi ils m'avaient laissée; mais où ils étaient allés, voilà ce que je ne savais pas; car, ayant envoyé des gens par le pays pour s'enquérir, il paraît qu'on ne put les trouver.

J'étais maintenant en point d'être pourvue; car bien que je ne fusse pas légalement à la charge de la paroisse pour telle ou telle partie de la ville, pourtant, dès qu'on connut ma situation et qu'on sut que j'étais trop jeune pour travailler, n'ayant pas plus de trois ans d'âge, la pitié émut les magistrats de la ville, et ils décidèrent de me prendre sous leur garde, et je devins à eux tout comme si je fusse née dans la cité.

Dans la provision qu'ils firent pour moi, j'eus la chance d'être mise en nourrice, comme ils disent, chez une bonne femme qui était pauvre, en vérité, mais qui avait connu de meilleurs jours, et qui gagnait petitement sa vie en élevant des enfants tels qu'on me supposait être, en les entretenant en toutes
