United States Department of Defense, The Power of Story Joan Wink Ph.D.,2017-11-07 Through this book readers will discover that stories can move the human heart and head in ways that research cannot Stories bring together readers writers librarians teachers students and families in the libraries of today and will continue to do so tomorrow Written for all those lovers of literacy this book links libraries and literacies through the power of stories The book is not filled with data in the form of pie charts graphs and tables Rather the truth of the research is grounded in authentic stories that reflect not only the interpretation of data but also the transformative nature of literacies and libraries The author s primary goal is that readers will come to value and use storytelling in their own professional and personal lives to explain and expand on complex concepts and to make information more accessible for all The book begins by presenting anecdotes and the author s personal story to lay the foundation for what literacies are and what literacy is not An activity Spiral of Literacy allows readers to reflect on their own literacies Chapters that follow each begin with a story that sets the theoretical foundation Each chapter concludes with an action section that demonstrates how to turn theory to practice whether you are in a library a classroom or at home A final chapter envisions what libraries might look like in 10 years through interviews with librarians teachers and others interested in literacy

Air Force Manual United States. Department of the Air Force, Screenplay and Narrative Theory George Varotsis,2015-10-01 Screenplay and Narrative Theory draws attention to the notion that in order to comprehend complex narrative dynamics which are encountered in a great variety of narrative genres forms and formats a more comprehensive theory of narrative is required George Varotsis explains how a work of narrative functions synergistically and systemically as well as elucidates the heuristic problem solving mechanisms that are employed in various structural levels of thought processes which allow the coherent accumulative derivative we call a story to emerge The transition from an empirical to theoretical perspective is achieved by introducing characteristics of complex narrative systems a network of narrative components i e characters structure goals motivations theme plot and subplots narrative action etc which are arranged hierarchically over three fundamental levels of structure i e deep intermediate and surface structure that interact parallel to one another in non linear ways Varotsis tackles questions about how stories semantically emerge in the underlying dynamics that allow a work of narrative to function as a unified whole

Humanism in Surgery Jonathan McFarland,Susana Magalhaes,Jacek Mostwin,René Genadry,2025-08-12 Medical Humanities and Narrative Medicine have been increasingly relevant in view of the challenges that new health technologies and the digital world pose to truly person centered healthcare By Narrative Medicine we understand the practice of healthcare with narrative skills that allow professionals to recognize the suffering of others and of themselves be able to interpret verbal and non verbal narratives of illness and be motivated to act in a way that respects the Person of the Patient and of the Professional Surgery like other medical specialties requires space for reflection and debate on the meaning of humanism and its impact on the quality of care This requirement is more pressing in this area because it has escaped inquiry by Medical Humanities and Narrative Medicine We believe that this is due to the nature of the surgical activity carried out in an enclosed place characterized by the use of sophisticated technologies including robotics and artificial intelligence and inaccessible to patients relatives In addition the patients own expectations about surgery reinforce the technological and highly specialized nature of this area often marked by the neglect of the relational context with clear prejudice to the parties involved and the activity itself Although this gap has been identified there has been no space for reflection on the humanization of care in surgery This book is therefore innovative precisely because it responds to the previously mentioned shortcomings offering its readers the opportunity to reflect on Humanism in Surgery
