Church Chat Tom Smith, 2014-12-19 On March 13 2013 the Catholic Church changed dramatically when Pope Francis I the Argentine slum walker immediately began to redefine the papacy His refreshing yet humble leadership collides with the approach of previous popes and revives the themes of the Second Vatican Council In Church Chat author Tom Smith catalogues that remarkable transition in an entertaining and thought provoking style A collection of previously published columns dating from 2009 and into 2014 Church Chat fearlessly displays some flaws of the Catholic Church while applauding the leadership of Pope Francis It is written by a progressive and still practicing Catholic who insists Its my Church too Transition times stir things up cause unusual hopes and fears bring stuff at the bottom to the top and take one set of priorities and replace them with another Things move quickly during major transitions what was standard at one time is replaced by a new approach Since this new period is just beginning we dont know how it will turn out but one thing is certain these are historic times in the Catholic Church Pope Francis is moving quickly on many fronts and the vision of Vatican II is growing some flesh Finally Every Catholic liberal conservative or confused will benefit from Tom Smiths intelligent book Church Chat I highly recommend this lively and loving book Michael Leach author of Why Stay Catholic Unexpected Answers to a Life Changing Question Church Chat is a great read for veteran Church reformers as well as for people in the pews The issue treatment is very comprehensive and right on all done in a friendly conversational style The reader thus comes away with a window into a hope filled near future for the People of God as well as a warm connection with Tom on his soulful journey forward Dan and Sheila Daley Co Founders of Call to Action

Crying Out for Justice Full-Throated and Unsparingly Tim Stier ,2015-03-17 Many people ask why more Catholic priests don t speak up about the crisis roiling the Church the rampant sexual abuse of children and youth the second class status of women the denial of dignity and respect for gay and lesbian persons and the woeful and at times criminal behavior of bishops Crying Out for Justice Full Throated and Unsparingly is one priest s personal story of awakening to the urgent need for structural reform Tim Stier s 25 years of experience as a parish priest in five parishes in the suburbs of Oakland California and ten more years in voluntary exile provide ample evidence that the Catholic Church is in dire need of change Real reform requires truth telling and this book does a lot of that The abysmal leadership in many dioceses and parishes causes real suffering to real people

Religion, Spirituality and Everyday Practice Giuseppe Giordan,William H. Swatos, Jr.,2011-08-14 The current generation of young adults at least in the Western world has shown a marked tendency toward a preference for describing themselves as spiritual as contrasted to religious This book seeks to examine the possible meanings and consequences associated with this contrast in terms of the similarities and differences that affect those who use these terms with respect to the everyday practices that they themselves employ or believe should follow from being self defined as religious or spiritual or not The several chapters in this volume take up the religious spiritual contrast specifically through investigations into practice In what ways do people who claim to be religious or spiritual define these self images as manifest in their own lives How on a daily basis does a person who considers himself or herself religious or spiritual live out that self image in specific ways that she or he can describe to others even if not share with others Are there ways that being spiritual can involve religion or ways that being religious can involve spirituality and if so how do these differ from concepts in prior eras e g Ignatian spirituality Orthodox spirituality Anglican spirituality etc We also explore if there are institutions of spiritual practice to which those who term themselves spiritual turn or if the difference implied by these terms may instead be between institutionalized and de institutionalized expressions of practice including but not limited to self spiritualities

Getting Saved in America Carolyn Chen,2009-04-11 What does becoming American have to do with becoming religious Many immigrants become more religious after coming to the United States Taiwanese are no different Like many Asian immigrants to the United States Taiwanese frequently convert to Christianity after immigrating But Americanization is more than simply a process of Christianization Most Taiwanese American Buddhists also say they converted only after arriving in the United States even though Buddhism is a part of Taiwan s dominant religion

By examining the experiences of Christian and Buddhist Taiwanese Americans Getting Saved in America tells a story of how people become religious by becoming American and how people become American by becoming religious Carolyn Chen argues that many Taiwanese immigrants deal with the challenges of becoming American by becoming religious Based on in depth interviews with Taiwanese American Christians and Buddhists and extensive ethnographic fieldwork at a Taiwanese Buddhist temple and a Taiwanese Christian church in Southern California Getting Saved in America is the first book to compare how two religions influence the experiences of one immigrant group By showing how religion transforms many immigrants into Americans it sheds new light on the question of how immigrants become American Educating for Faith and Justice Thomas P. Rausch, 2010-01-01 Catholic colleges and universities play a crucial role in handing on a rich faith tradition to young adults today As these institutions have become more professional and pluralistic many are asking how effective they are at carrying out the religious mission which is central to their identity Are Catholic colleges and universities significantly different from less expensive state institutions or from other private colleges and universities Are they still committed to the search for truth which is really the search for God Thomas Rausch an eminent educator is a Catholic priest long interested in Catholic theology as a work of the church not just of the academy He insists we must also ask of Catholic higher education today Does it truly form students in the faith that does justice or does it simply speed their passage into successful corporate lifestyles Does it help students come to a personal encounter with the divine mystery revealed in Jesus Keeping these questions before them Rausch and five other contributors to this volume provide wisdom insight and concrete examples of how Catholic higher education can indeed foster faith that leads to a more just world Thomas P Rausch SJ is the T Marie Chilton Professor of Catholic Theology at Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles He is author of numerous books including I Believe in God A Reflection on the Apostles Creed Being Catholic in a Culture of Choice and Towards a Truly Catholic Church Liturgical Press Entering the New Theological Space John Reader, 2016-05-06 This book presents theological reflections on the changing nature of church mission and Christian identity within a theology of blurred encounter a physical social political and spiritual space where once solid hierarchies and patterns are giving way to more fluid and in many ways unsettling exchanges The issues raised and dynamics explored apply to all socially produced space thus tending to blur that most fundamental of theological categories namely urban vs rural theology Engaging in a sharper way with some of the helpful but inevitably broad brush conclusions raised by recent church based reports Mission shaped Church Faithful Cities the authors examine some of the practical and theological implications of this research for the issue of effective management and therefore church leadership generally Speaking to practitioners in the field of practical theology as well as those engaged in theological and ministerial training key voices encompass dimensions of power and conflict and identify some of the present and future opportunities and challenges to church faith based engagement and leadership arising from blurred encounters Contributors practitioners and theorists cover a wide spectrum of interdisciplinary professional contexts and academic denominational interests Contributors include John Atherton John Reader Helen Cameron Martyn Percy Malcolm Brown Karen Lord Clare McBeath and Margaret Goodall     Faith, Family, and Filipino American Community Life Stephen M. Cherry, 2014-01-03 Stephen M Cherry draws upon a rich set of ethnographic and survey data collected over a six year period to explore the roles that Catholicism and family play in shaping Filipino American community life From the planning and construction of community centers to volunteering at health fairs or protesting against abortion this book illustrates the powerful ways these forces structure and animate not only how first generation Filipino Americans think and feel about their community but how they are compelled to engage it over issues deemed important to the sanctity of the family Revealing more than intimate accounts of Filipino American lives Cherry offers a glimpse of the often hidden but vital relationship between religion and community in the lives of new immigrants and allows speculation on the broader impact of Filipino immigration on the nation The Filipino American community is the second largest immigrant community in the United States and the Philippines is the second largest source of Catholic immigration to this country This ground breaking study outlines how first generation Filipino Americans have the potential to reshape American Catholicism and are already having an impact on American civic life through the engagement of their faith     Sharing Faith Thomas Groome, 1998-11-23 Provides a comprehensive introduction to all aspects of religious education and pastoral ministry and gives an in depth inquiry into the philosophical educational and theological theories for sharing faith     New SCM Dictionary of Christian Spirituality Philip Sheldrake, 2013-05-20 This dictionary attempts to give direct access to the development of Christian Spirituality It is a series of pieces written by experts to provide instant accurate and thought provoking information of high scholarship
