Outfoxed Alexandra Kitty, 2005-04-01

The director of 2004's smash hit documentary Outfoxed Rupert Murdoch's War on Journalism teams with journalist Alexandra Kitty in an even more detailed and updated examination of how media empires led by Rupert Murdoch's Fox News have been running a race to the bottom in television news They examine media consolidation by focusing on the Fox News Channel How did Fox gain prominence How did the Fox News Channel gain audiences and influence public debate How does Fox report reality Is the network merely interpreting events or is it pushing propaganda Who are the main players and how do they treat their friends and enemies Why should readers care about how Fox takes liberties with its facts Each chapter blends interviews from Greenwald's documentary transcripts from Fox programs and other research pertaining to Fox News not only to illustrate the

Fox mentality but also to show the factual ethical and structural problems with the news channel Interviews and transcripts are analyzed to give readers a strong sense of what Fox is actually telling its audiences Truthiness Fever Rick Hayes-Roth,2011-05 This book should crystallize your cynicism You your friends your children already discount most of the information you hear or read that is presented as fact You have come to believe that nearly everyone is lying governments and businesses use giant megaphones for propaganda and that only a fool would expect the media to be constrained to truth telling Are your perceptions correct and has it always been this bad American Hiroshima David J. Dionisi,2005 American Hiroshima delivers concrete ideas to defeat terrorists strengthen democracy reduce weapons of mass destruction and establish the United States as a 21st century force for peace Why TV Is Not Our Fault Eileen R. Meehan,2005-11-03 For more than five decades we ve been told by pundits commentators advertisers scholars and politicians that television is both a window on the world and a mirror reflecting our culture We ve been led to believe that it shows us the world s events through news programs and through entertainment programs reflects the preferences values beliefs and understandings shared by most Americans We re told that if you don t like what you see on TV don t blame the industry blame yourself This book dispels the myth that the television industry is just giving viewers the programming they want to see and thus we as viewers are responsible for the existence of shows like Fear Factor and yet another Survivor In fact Eileen Meehan explains viewers exert no demand in the market for ratings advertising slots program production or telecasting She also counters the idea that TV programs reflect our culture directly Introducing us to the political economy of television Meehan covers programming corporate strategies advertising the misnomer of competition among networks and organizations that seek more industry accountability She tells us why TV isn t our fault_ and who s really to blame The Routledge Handbook of Mass Media Ethics Lee Wilkins,Clifford G. Christians,2020-03-13 This fully updated second edition of the popular handbook provides an exploration of thinking on media ethics bringing together the intellectual history of global mass media ethics over the past 40 years summarising existing research and setting future agenda grounded in philosophy and social science This second edition offers up to date and comprehensive coverage of media ethics including the ethics of sources social media the roots of law in ethics and documentary film The wide range of contributors include scholars and former professionals who worked as journalists public relations professionals and advertising practitioners They lay out both a good grounding from which to begin more in depth and individualized explorations and extensive bibliographies for each chapter to aid that process For students and professionals who seek to understand and do the best work possible this book will provide both insight and direction Standing apart in its comprehensive coverage The Routledge Handbook of Mass Media Ethics is required reading for scholars graduate students and researchers in media mass communication journalism ethics and related areas Political TV Chuck Tryon,2016-02-05 This book serves as an accessible critical introduction to the broad category of American political television content Encompassing political news and scripted entertainment Political TV addresses a range of formats including interview news programs political satire fake news drama and reality TV From long running programs like Meet the Press to more recent offerings including Veep The Daily Show House of Cards Last Week Tonight and Scandal Tryon addresses ongoing debates about the role of television in representing issues and ideas relevant to American politics Exploring political TV s construction of concepts of citizenship and national identity the status of political TV in a post network era and advertisements in politics Political TV offers an engaging timely analysis of how this format engages its audience in the political scene The book also includes a videography of key and historical series discussion questions and a bibliography for further reading

New Wars Scott Nicholas Romaniuk,2013 Al Qaeda s deadly assaults against the American homeland on September 11 2001 deeply altered regional security architectures the world over Religious extremists responsible for having coordinated and implemented the 9 11 attacks have brought state and non state actors to radically reconsider traditional concepts of security including responses and the need for tactical and strategic preemption in the face of growing conventional and asymmetric threats to communities at home and abroad Drawing upon critical new research the analyses presented by the contributors of this volume challenge and even shatter previously held ideas about domestic and international terrorism and state sanctioned violence They shed light upon new conceptions of security as well as the need for actors to address existing and emerging cultures of fear and critical susceptibilities in the face of wanton violence and security of the state in the 21st century
