Case Studies of Famous Trials and Gorden, Caroline, Birkbeck, Christopher, 2022-04-11 From the trials of Oscar Pistorius to O J Simpson and Michael Jackson this innovative book provides a critical review of 11 high profile criminal cases These case studies examine how guilt and innocence are constructed in the courts and in wider society using the themes of evidence and narratives credibility rhetoric and oratory in the court room social status vulnerability and false confessions diminished responsibility and the media and social judgments Written for criminology sociology law and criminal justice students the book includes video links to selected documentaries and interviews web links to important case materials such as trial transcripts exercises for students based on the cases that are covered The book delivers an accessible examination of the criminological sociological psychological and legal processes underpinning the outcome of criminal cases and their representation in the media and wider society Openness and Evidence: The Oscar Pistorius Crossroad Dr Sonja Els, 2024-11-15 Weighing the constitutional rights of freedom of expression of the media and fair trial rights of the criminal accused known as the fair trial free press conundrum is a global challenge The development of technology such as live streaming of criminal trials through television and real time reporting through social media challenges the traditional views of open justice especially regarding evidence and the credibility thereof The legal maxim of Justice must be seen to be done lies at the heart of this book that focuses on openness and evidence in the South African criminal process The principle of open justice a Constitutional requirement is examined in relation to truth finding in the adversarial system of evidence New media challenge the procedural legitimacy of evidence As a rule of practice to prevent witness contamination witnesses in a criminal trial remain outside the courtroom while the other witnesses testify This book explores the impact of live broadcasting and streaming of criminal trials on the credibility of witnesses who might have been exposed to evidence before testifying The book also evaluates the applicability of the sub judice rule against the requirement of openness Furthermore the conflicting constitutional rights being the right to a fair trial and the right to freedom of expression are interrogated in the quest to new media broadcasting The book features a legal comparison between the jurisprudence of South Africa the United States of America and Britain in the domain of new media court reporting In conclusion principles of therapeutic jurisprudence are considered as live broadcasting of criminal trials may provide therapeutic outcomes for the victim the accused and the broader society This book serves as an indispensable resource for those navigating the intersection between the use of new media in court reporting and the constitutional imperatives being open justice and fundamental rights Scholars in the fields of Law of Criminal Procedure Media Law and Constitutional Law will gain fresh insights into these topical issues Narratives Online Ruth Page, 2018-01-25 Stories are shared by millions of people online every day They post and re post interactions as they re tell and respond to large scale mediated events These stories are important as they can bring people together or polarise them in opposing groups Narratives Online explores this new genre the shared story and uses carefully chosen case studies to illustrate the complex processes of sharing as they are shaped by four international social media contexts Wikipedia Facebook Twitter and YouTube Building on discourse analytic research Ruth Page develops a new framework Mediated Narrative Analysis to address the large scale multimodal nature of online narratives helping researchers interpret the micro and macro level politics that are played out in computer mediated communication

Suid-Afrikaanse Hofverslae ,2015      Science Education in Countries Along the Belt & Road Ronghuai Huang,Bing Xin,Ahmed Tlili,Feng Yang,Xiangling Zhang,Lixin Zhu,Mohamed Jemni,2022-01-18 This book aims to highlight science education in countries along the Belt and Road It consists of 30 chapters divided into three main parts namely Arab and African countries Asian countries and European countries We invited science education experts from 29 Belt and Road countries to introduce the current status of science education in their countries and the new requirements with the rapid evolution of Information Technology The major contributions of this book include 1 Provide the current status of science education in countries along the Belt and Road as well as the requirement for developing and improving science education in these countries 2 Discuss new insights of science education in future years 3 Inspire stakeholders to take effective initiatives to develop science education in countries along the Belt and Road      Glimpses into Primary School Teacher Education in South Africa Sarah Gravett,Elizabeth Henning,2020-11-05 This book explores the current landscape of Initial Teacher Education ITE in primary schools in South Africa Considering recent policy directives and initiatives it highlights the dilemmas of ITE for the primary school and gives a thorough account of innovations and initiatives to improve ITE The book presents what works best for quality preparation of teachers in the Global South where many children rely on their teachers and school life to break the cycle of poverty Chapters draw on evidence from workplace learning pre service study and primary school teacher education policy to highlight examples of promising change in teacher education in South Africa addressing the clichés of theory versus practice head on This book successfully brings out the challenging aspects of teacher education for childhood learning which has otherwise been regarded as the softer option for a career in education This book will be of great interest for academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of teacher education African education educational policy international education and comparative education      Towards more effective collaboration by higher education institutions for greater regional development in the Gauteng City-Region Robert Bergman,2014-11-19

Higher education institutions HEIs in the Gauteng City Region GCR and elsewhere are increasingly being called upon to do more than their traditional roles of teaching and research They are now expected to collaborate and engage with other stakeholders with a view to contributing directly and indirectly to social and economic development in their localities Such an orientation includes having HEIs actively fostering public private partnerships and other initiatives that enhance equitable regional development The adoption of such a focus has implications for all aspects of these institutions activities as well as for the policy and regulatory framework in which they operate This Occasional Paper reflects critically on the role of HEIs in regional development It surveys current debates on the matter and draws out some of the implications on how we ought to think further about the current state of government industryacademia interaction and collaboration for development in the GCR It is motivated by an awareness of the increasing importance of higher education in the regional development discourse alongside a body of international theory and practice on the contribution of HEIs to regional development A cornerstone of this body of literature is the so called triple helix framework within which government industry and academia work intimately intensely and collaboratively towards a common vision of regional development Within this framework HEIs are considered to be a public good that must play a large meaningful and relevant role in the development and improvement of the cities and regions where they are located 1 2 They do not and cannot stand completely outside the realities of their geographic social cultural and political environment The intended audience for this report extends beyond academics and HEI administrators to include government officials business and labour leaders civil society and citizens because a discussion on stimulating and improving the GCR must be much more than an academic exercise The collaboration that is essential to regional development requires stakeholders to be familiar with a wide spectrum of issues of importance to individual constituencies Each constituency must add value and insight to the discussion by drawing on their specific knowledge experience and self interests Establishing this common ground is fundamental to initiating meaningful debate about what the GCR can and should be and how regional HEIs can work more collaboratively creatively and effectively to improve and advance the region

Age-related Diseases Through the Lens of Health Economics, Volume II Lei Si,Mingsheng Chen,Susmita Chatterjee,2023-04-04 Still An Inconvenient Youth Fiona Forde,2014-08-01 A provocative look at Julius Malema South Africa s most controversial politician as he continues to shake up the political landscape Julius Malema South Africa s eminent new socialist was sworn in as a member of parliament on 21 May 2014 days after his political party the Economic Freedom Fighters EFF secured more than one million votes in its first elections and 25 seats in the national assembly It marked a new chapter in Malema s political career but it was also a crude awakening for the Cape Town parliament the portly rebel and his EFF colleagues marched into the chamber wearing bright red workers overalls and their signature red berets as they promised to take the interests of the poor to the floor of parliament Love him or loathe him Malema is undeniably one of the most controversial politicians of modern day South Africa if not a radical product of more than 100 years of struggle politics Following on from the success of the bestselling An Inconvenient Youth this revised edition of Still an Inconvenient Youth Julius Malema carries on traces Malema s life from his early poverty stricken years in Limpopo to his political awakenings in the ANC the party he called home until he was ousted in 2012 It charts the early days of the EFF and looks at the young men and women leaders who helped secure the party its first votes in 2014 What does it all mean for South Africa Does the EFF have the staying power that is needed Or is it simply a front for the dubious Malema brand Still an Inconvenient Youth unpacks the rabble rouser s new socialist revolution     Johannesburg ,1997
