Gender Practices in Contemporary Vietnam Lisa Barbara Welch Drummond, Helle Rydstrom, 2004 Confucianism colonialism and socialism have all contributed significantly to gender relations in Vietnam More recently political and social change associated with modernization and globalization have also had an impact How do the Vietnamese display their social positions and their identities as male or female This volume examines negotiations and transgressions of gender within Vietnamese society looking at gender family social and work relations bodily displays body language and the occupation of space Of special interest is a discussion of sexual harassment in schools and the workplace and the strategies women adopt to deal with it the first discussion of this issue by a Vietnamese scholar Gender Practices In Contemporary Vietnam Lisa Barbara Welch Drummond, Helle Rydstrom, 2004 This volume examines negotiations and transgressions of gender within Vietnamese society looking at gender family social and work relations bodily displays body language and occupation of space Of special interest is a discussion of sexual harassment in schools and the workplace and the strategies women adopt to deal with it the first discussion of this issue by a Vietnamese scholar The essays reflect a wide range of scholarly viewpoints American Vietnamese American Australian Scandinavian Canadian and Vietnamese as well as analytical perspectives as diverse as those offered by Simone de Beauvoir and the second wave of western feminism Weaving Women's Spheres in Vietnam, 2015-11-30 Weaving Women's Spheres in Vietnam offers an in depth study of the status of women in Vietnamese society through an examination of their roles in the context of family religious and local community life from anthropological historical and sociological perspectives Unlike previous works on gender issues relating to Vietnam which focus on women as passive subjects and are restricted to specific spheres such as family this book through a series of case studies and life stories not only examines the suppressive gender structure of the Vietnamese family but also demonstrates Vietnamese women's agency in appropriating that structure and creating alternative spheres for women which they have interwoven in between the dominant realms of public and private spheres in the areas of family religious practice community organizations and politics including their participation in the reconstruction of national identity Accordingly this volume is expected to become an important new benchmark relating to gender issues in Asian societies especially in the context of so called transitional societies such as China and Vietnam Contributors include Kirsten W Endres Ito Mariko Ito Miho Kato Atsufumi Hy V Luong Miyazawa Chihiro Thien Huong T Ninh Tran Thi Minh Thi Dancing Youth Sandra Kurfürst, 2021-10-01 Breaking popping locking waacking and hip hop dance are practiced widely in contemporary Vietnam Considering the dance practices in the larger context of post socialist transformation urban restructuring and changing gender relations Sandra Kurfürst examines youth's aspirations and desires embodied in dance Drawing on a rich and diverse range of qualitative data including interviews sensory and digital ethnography she shows how dancers confront social and gender norms while following their passion As a contribution to area and global studies the book illuminates the translocal

spatialities of hip hop produced through the circulation of objects and the movement of people      Gender in an Era of Post-truth Populism Penny Jane Burke, Julia Coffey, Rosalind Gill, Akane Kanai, 2022-03-24 What does it mean to be pedagogical in a post truth landscape How might feminist thought and action work to intervene in this environment Gender in an Era of Post truth Populism draws together leading feminist scholars of gender and education to explore the current significance of the rise of populist policies and discourses and the challenges it poses to the hard won battles regarding the rights of women immigrants and minorities Offering the first detailed feminist intervention in this space the collection explores the significance of populism for feminist pedagogies and practices in relation to gender and education This exploration has significance for broader and urgent questions of our times regarding knowledge authority truth power and harm and considers the potential for feminist interventions in relation to pedagogies and activism to speak back and disrupt populist agendas      Feminist Theories of Crime Merry Morash, 2017-07-05 This collection re imagines the field of criminology with insights gleaned from feminist theory Works included here illustrate that gender is a key organizing principle of social life This means that men and women have gender that patriarchy as well as gender must be theorized and that other systems of oppression such as race and class must also be studied to fully understand the crime problem and the criminal justice system Finally the articles collected here exemplify the feminist concern for thinking consciously about how and why we do our research with the crucial goal of producing knowledge that will promote social justice      Gender Violence in Poverty Contexts Jenny Parkes, 2015-03-27 This book is concerned with understanding the complex ways in which gender violence and poverty impact on young people s lives and the potential for education to challenge violence Although there has been a recent expansion of research on gender violence and schooling the field of research that brings together thinking on gender violence poverty and education is in its infancy This book sets out to establish this new field by offering innovative research insights into the nature of violence affecting children and young people the sources of violence including the relationship with poverty and inequality the effects of violence on young subjectivities and the educational challenge of how to counter violence Authors address three interrelated aims in their chapters to identify theoretical and methodological framings for understanding the relationship between gender violence poverty and education to demonstrate how young people living in varying contexts of poverty in the Global South learn about engage in respond to and resist gender violence to investigate how institutions including schools families communities governments international and non governmental organisations and the media constrain or expand possibilities to challenge gender violence in the Global South Describing a range of innovative research projects the chapters display what scholarly work can offer to help meet the educational challenge and to find ways to help young people and those around them to understand resist and rupture the many faces of violence Gender Violence in Poverty Contexts will appeal to an international audience of postgraduate students academics and researchers in the fields of international and comparative education gender and women s studies teacher education poverty development and conflict studies African and Asian studies and related disciplines It will also be of interest to professionals in NGOs and other organisations and policy makers keen to develop research informed practice Winner of the 2016 Jackie Kirk Outstanding Book Award Vietnam's Socialist Servants Minh T. N. Nguyen, 2014-08-27 Since Vietnam introduced economic reforms in the mid 1980s domestic service has become an established sector of the labour market and domestic workers have become indispensable to urban life in the rapidly changing country This book analyzes the ways in which the practices and discourses of domestic service serve to forge and contest emerging class identities in post reform Vietnam Drawing on a rich and diverse range of qualitative data including ethnographies interviews and narratives it shows that such practices and discourses are rooted in cultural notions of gender and rural urban difference and enduring socialist structures of feeling which in turn clash with the realities of growing differentiation Domestic workers experiences reveal negotiations with class boundaries actively set by the urban middle class who seek distinction through emerging notions and practices of domesticity These boundaries are nevertheless riddled with gender and class anxiety on the side of the latter partly because of the very struggles and contestations of the domestic workers More broadly Minh T N Nguyen links the often invisible intimate dynamics of class formation in the domestic sphere with wider political economic processes in a post socialist country embarking on marketization while retaining the political control of a party state As a pioneering ethnographic study of domestic service in Vietnam today this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of Southeast Asian culture society social anthropology gender studies human geography and development studies

Experiments in Skin Thuy Linh Nguyen Tu, 2021-02-22 In Experiments in Skin Thuy Linh Nguyen Tu examines the ongoing influence of the Vietnam War on contemporary ideas about race and beauty Framing skin as the site around which these ideas have been formed Tu foregrounds the histories of militarism in the production of US biomedical knowledge and commercial cosmetics She uncovers the efforts of wartime scientists in the US Military Dermatology Research Program to alleviate the environmental and chemical risks to soldiers skin These dermatologists sought relief for white soldiers while denying that African American soldiers and Vietnamese civilians were also vulnerable to harm Their experiments led to the development of pharmaceutical cosmetics now used by women in Ho Chi Minh City to tend to their skin and to grapple with the damage caused by the war's lingering toxicity In showing how the US military laid the foundations for contemporary Vietnamese consumption of cosmetics and practices of beauty Tu shows how the intersecting histories of militarism biomedicine race and aesthetics become materially and metaphorically visible on skin Gender, Household and State in Post-Revolutionary Vietnam Jayne Werner, 2009-01-21 Examining gender in post revolutionary Vietnam focusing in particular on gender relations in both the family and state since the onset of economic reform in 1986 this book argues that as in the socialist era current gender relations bear the imprint of state gender policies and discourses
