Curating Under Pressure Janet Marstine, Svetlana Mintcheva, 2020-07-14 Curating Under Pressure breaks the silence surrounding curatorial self censorship and shows that it is both endemic to the practice and ubiquitous Contributors map the diverse forms such self censorship takes and offer creative strategies for negotiating curatorial integrity This is the first book to look at pressures to self censor and the curatorial responses to these pressures from a wide range of international perspectives The book offers examples of the many creative strategies that curators deploy to negotiate pressures to self censor and gives evidence of curators political acumen ethical sagacity and resilience over the long term It also challenges the assumption that self censorship is something to be avoided at all costs and suggests that a decision to self censor may sometimes be politically and ethically imperative Curating Under Pressure serves as a corrective to the assumption that censorship pressures render practitioners impotent It demonstrates that curatorial practice under pressure offers inspiring models of agency ingenuity and empowerment Curating Under Pressure is a highly original and intellectually ambitious volume and as such will be of great interest to students and academics in the areas of museum studies curatorial and gallery studies art history studio art and arts administration The book will also be an essential tool for museum practitioners

A History of Forensic Science Alison Adam, 2015-11-19 How and when did forensic science originate in the UK This question demands our attention because our understanding of present day forensic science is vastly enriched through gaining an appreciation of what went before A History of Forensic Science is the first book to consider the wide spectrum of influences which went into creating the discipline in Britain in the first part of the twentieth century This book offers a history of the development of forensic sciences centred on the UK but with consideration of continental and colonial influences from around 1880 to approximately 1940 This period was central to the formation of a separate discipline of forensic science with a distinct professional identity and this book charts the strategies of the new forensic scientists to gain an authoritative voice in the courtroom and to forge a professional identity in the space between forensic medicine scientific policing and independent expert witnessing In so doing it improves our understanding of how forensic science developed as it did This book is essential reading for academics and students engaged in the study of criminology the history of forensic science science and technology studies and the history of policing

Borderland Infrastructures Alessandro Rippa, 2025-10-01 Across the Chinese borderlands investments in large scale transnational infrastructure such as roads and special economic zones have increased exponentially over the past two decades Based on long term ethnographic research Borderland Infrastructures addresses a major contradiction at the heart of this fast paced development small scale traders have lost their historic strategic advantages under the growth of massive Chinese state investment and are now struggling to keep their businesses afloat Concurrently local ethnic minorities have become the target of radical resettlement projects

securitization and tourism initiatives and have in many cases grown increasingly dependent on state subsidies At the juncture of anthropological explorations of the state border studies and research on transnational trade and infrastructure development Borderland Infrastructures provides new analytical tools to understand how state power is experienced mediated and enacted in Xinjiang and Yunnan In the process Rippa offers a rich and nuanced ethnography of life across China's peripheries

Statebuilding and State Formation in the Western Pacific Matthew Allen, Sinclair

Dinnen, 2018-04-19 This book provides a rigorous and cross disciplinary analysis of this Melanesian nation at a critical juncture in its post colonial and post conflict history with contributions from leading scholars of Solomon Islands The notion of transition as used to describe the recent drawdown of the decade long Regional Assistance Mission to Solomon Islands RAMSI provides a departure point for considering other transformations social political and economic under way in the archipelagic nation Organised around a central tension between change and continuity two of the book's key themes are the contested narratives of changing state society relations and the changing social relations around land and natural resources engendered by ongoing processes of globalisation and urbanisation Drawing heuristically on RAMSI's genesis in the state building moment that dominated international relations during the first decade of this century the book also examines the critical distinction between state building and state formation in the Solomon Islands context It engages with global scholarly and policy debates on issues such as peacebuilding state building legal pluralism hybrid governance globalisation urbanisation and the governance of natural resources These themes resonate well beyond Solomon Islands and Melanesia and the book will be of interest to a wide range of students scholars and development practitioners This book was previously published as a special issue of The Journal of Pacific History

The World the Plague Made James Belich, 2022-07-19 A groundbreaking history of how the Black Death unleashed revolutionary change across the medieval world and ushered in the modern age In 1346 a catastrophic plague beset Europe and its neighbours The Black Death was a human tragedy that abruptly halved entire populations and caused untold suffering but it also brought about a cultural and economic renewal on a scale never before witnessed The World the Plague Made is a panoramic history of how the bubonic plague revolutionized labour trade and technology and set the stage for Europe's global expansion James Belich takes readers across centuries and continents to shed new light on one of history's greatest paradoxes Why did Europe's dramatic rise begin in the wake of the Black Death Belich shows how plague doubled the per capita endowment of everything even as it decimated the population Many more people had disposable incomes Demand grew for silks sugar spices furs gold and slaves Europe expanded to satisfy that demand and plague provided the means Labour scarcity drove more use of waterpower wind power and gunpowder Technologies like water powered blast furnaces heavily gunned galleons and musketry were fast tracked by plague A new crew culture of disposable males emerged to man the guns and galleons Setting the rise of Western Europe in global context Belich demonstrates how the mighty empires of the Middle East and Russia also flourished after the plague and how European expansion was deeply entangled with the Chinese and other peoples throughout the world      Centers of Power in the Arab Gulf States Kristian Coates Ulrichsen, 2023-12-07 How are authority and influence accumulated and wielded across the six Gulf states Mixing theoretical and empirical insights and utilising both historical and contemporary examples this book offers a comparative analysis of military political economic and religious power in Bahrain Kuwait Oman Qatar Saudi Arabia and the UAE as well as of the power of narrative While many volumes examine each of these states individually Centers of Power in the Arab Gulf States assesses the Arabian Peninsula as a whole filling a significant gap in the literature It surveys the myriad factors which have influenced the emergence of these states societies and political economies which have become increasingly assertive actors in today's global order Exploring domestic regional and transnational pressures Kristian Coates Ulrichsen sheds light on the varying concepts of power and authority the different forms they take the ways they are projected and the practical constraints on their exercise From whom does power derive Is it something different from influence and ambition Is decision making top down or bottom up or a mixture of both From bureaucrats to scholars and from royals to opposition figures Coates Ulrichsen uncovers the power relations shaping the Gulf today

Eco-Homes Doctor Jenny Pickerill, 2016-01-15 It is widely understood that good affordable eco housing needs to be at the heart of any attempt to mitigate or adapt to climate change This is the first book to comprehensively explore eco housing from a geographical social and political perspective It starts from the premise that we already know how to build good eco houses and we already have the technology to retrofit existing housing Despite this relatively few eco houses are being built Featuring over thirty case studies of eco housing in Britain Spain Thailand Argentina and the United States Eco Homes examines the ways in which radical changes to our houses such as making them more temporary using natural materials or relying on manual heating and ventilation systems require changes in how we live As such it argues it is not lack of technology or political will that is holding us back from responding to climate change but deep rooted cultural and social understandings of our way of life and what we expect our houses to do for us      The Ashgate Research Companion to the Korean War Donald W. Boose, 2016-03-23 This essential companion provides a comprehensive study of the literature on the causes course and consequences of the Korean War 1950-1953 Aimed primarily at readers with a special interest in military history and contemporary conflict studies the authors summarize and analyze the key research issues in what for years was known as the Forgotten War The book comprises three main thematic parts each with chapters ranging across a variety of crucial topics covering the background conduct clashes and outcome of the Korean War The first part sets the historical stage with chapters focusing on the main participants The second part provides details on the tactics equipment and logistics of the belligerents Part III covers the course of the war with each chapter addressing a key stage of the fighting in chronological order The enormous increase in writings on the Korean War during the last thirty years following the release of key primary source documents has revived and energized the interest of scholars This essential reference work not only provides an overview of recent research but also assesses what impact this has had on understanding the war

I'm Buffy and You're History Patricia Pender, 2016-06-28 Buffy the Vampire Slayer gave contemporary TV viewers an exhilarating alternative to the tired cultural trope of a hapless attractive blonde woman victimized by a murderous male villain With its strong capable heroine witty dialogue and a creator Joss Whedon who identifies himself as a feminist the cult show became one of the most widely analysed texts in contemporary popular culture The last episode broadcast in 2002 did not herald the passing of a fleeting phenomenon Buffy is a media presence still active on DVD and the internet alive in the career of Joss Whedon and studied internationally I m Buffy and You re History puts the entire series under the microscope investigating its gender and feminist politics In this book Patricia Pender argues that Buffy includes diverse elements of feminism and reconfigures and sometimes revises the ideals of American second wave feminism for a wide third wave audience She also explores the ways in which the final season s vision of collective feminist activism negotiates racial and class boundaries Exploring the Slayer s postmodern politics her position as a third wave feminist icon her placing of masculinity in extremism and her fandom and legacy in popular culture this is a fresh and challenging contribution to the growing literature on the pitfalls and pleasures of a great cult TV show

History of Education Policymaking in India, 1947-2016 R. V. Vaidyanatha Ayyar, 2017-09-12 This book comprehensively chronicles the history of the education policymaking in India from 1947 to 2016 with a focus on the developments after 1964 when the Kothari Commission was constituted The book is informed by the rare insights acquired by the author while making policy at the state national and international levels of governance Another distinguishing feature of this book lies in the attention it pays to the process and politics of policymaking and the larger setting or to use jargon the political and policy environment in which policies were made at different points of time The author brings out a crucial analysis of the Indian educational system against the backdrop of national and global political economic and educational developments Two other distinguishing features of the book are the systematic treatment of the regulation of education and the role of judiciary in the making and implementation of education policies The British left and the defence economy Keith Mc Loughlin,2022-03-29 Forty years before COVID 19 socialists in Britain campaigned for workers to have the right to make socially useful products from hospital equipment to sustain the NHS to affordable heating systems for the impoverished elderly This movement held one thing responsible above all else for the nation s problems the burden of defence spending In the middle of the Cold War the left put a direct challenge to the defence industry the Labour government and trade unions The response it received revealed much about a military industrial state that prioritised the making and exporting of arms for political favour and profit Looking at peace activism from the early 1970s to Labour s landslide defeat in the 1983 general election this book examines the conflict over the cost of Britain s commitment to the Cold War and asserts that the wider left presented a comprehensive and implementable alternative to the stark choice between making weapons and joining the dole queue That Option No Longer Exists John Medhurst,2014-08-29 It is time to look afresh at the 1970s It was not a grey decade of decline defeat and power blackouts Bursting with cultural experimentation sexual liberation and industrial militancy the 1970s saw the ruling elites of Britain challenged at every level most especially by a Labour left led by Tony Benn which aimed to effect a fundamental and irreversible shift in the balance of wealth and power in favour of working people That Option No Longer Exists reveals a hidden history how Benn and the left tried to reform British industry to introduce democracy in the workplace and overturn the power of Finance and how Whitehall the security services and the City fought back paving the way for Thatcher to re establish the rule of money and the markets Britain almost took a different path in 1974 76 to that of massive wealth inequality the dominance of the City and the slow death of the welfare state This is the story of a struggle within government almost forgotten and of a tragic turning point in British history
