Rwanda

Rwanda is a country in Central Africa with a population of 10 million people. Historical records began with a Tutsi king who took power in 1860. During this time, the Tutsi were the aristocracy and the Hutu were their servants. After World War I, the League of Nations (an early version of the United Nations) gave Belgium power to administer Rwanda.

The Belgians used the already existing Tutsi and Hutu differences and made these differences part of their colonial system. The Hutus were used as forced labor for the colonial administration, and the Tutsis supervised them. In 1933, Rwandans were given an ethnic identity card showing if they were Hutu or Tutsi. At that time, 85% were Hutu and 15% were Tutsi. This ID card and Belgium's policy of favoring the Tutsis over the Hutus prepared Rwanda for future violence.

In 1959, three years before independence from Belgium in 1962, the Hutus overthrew the ruling Tutsi king. Over the next several years, thousands of Tutsis were killed. About 150,000 went into exile in neighboring countries. The children of these Tutsi exiles later formed a rebel group, the Rwandan Patriotic Front (RPF), and began a civil war in 1990. This war, along with political and economic problems, made ethnic tensions worse and led to the April 1994 genocide shown in the film Hotel Rwanda.

The Film

Hotel Rwanda is based on real characters and events that happened in Rwanda in 1994. It focuses on the efforts of Paul Rusesabagina, a hotel manager, to hide hundreds of Tutsi refugees and from the Interahamwe militia.

Career Construction Theory and Life Writing Hywel Dix,2021-05-13 This volume applies the insight and methods of career construction theory to explore how autobiographical writing is used in different professional careers from fiction and journalism to education and medicine It draws attention to the fact that a career is a particular kind of artefact with distinctive properties and features that can be analysed and compared and puts forward a new theory of the relationship between narrative methodology and the vocation of writing Career construction theory emerged in the late twentieth century when changes to the patterns of our working lives caused large numbers of people to seek new forms of vocational guidance to navigate those changes It employs a narrative paradigm in which periods of uncertainty are treated as experiences akin to writer's block experiences which can be overcome first by imagining new character arcs then by narrating them and finally by performing them By encouraging clients to see their careers as stories of which they are both the metaphorical authors and the main protagonists career construction counsellors enable them to envisage the next chapter in those stories But despite the authorial metaphor career construction theory has not been widely applied to analysis of professional careers in writing The chapters in this volume remedy that gap and in various ways apply the insights of career construction theory to analyse the relationship between writing and professional life in diverse careers where writing is used The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Life Writing Teaching for Peace and Social Justice in Myanmar Mary Shepard Wong,2022-06-02 Bringing together scholars and educators based in Myanmar the USA the UK Denmark and Thailand this book presents new perspectives and research on the struggle for social justice and peace in Myanmar at this critical juncture It shows how actors from diverse backgrounds and regions of Myanmar are drawing from their identities evoking their agency and using critical pedagogy to advance social justice and peace The chapters provide the compelling life stories of the authors specific examples of what they are doing and insights of how their work might be applied to other contexts The topics discussed include addressing structural violence peace curriculum development identity based conflict teaching the history of the country promoting inclusion civic education critical pedagogy teacher agency and agendas of research funding for peacebuilding The foreword and afterword written by well known scholars of Myanmar address the relevance and importance of the book vis a vis the current social and political crisis following the February 2021 military coup

Living into Hope Rev. Dr. Joan Brown Campbell, 2010-09-01 Step beyond the walls of the church and into the thick of humanity Joan Brown Campbell's career can be regarded as prophetic For Joan faith has meant engagement with the world and its pain Her words remind us that at its best religion should not narrow our horizons but enable us to live more fully should not cause us to withdraw from the world but to do our utmost to make it a better place from the Foreword by Karen Armstrong Drawing on her amazing life experiences Rev Dr Joan Brown Campbell speaks out on the pressing issues that face us today love justice reconciliation forgiveness and community With a bold distinctive voice this visionary minister asserts that we have the capacity to transcend the barriers that separate us from one another She poses that Who is my neighbor may be the most crucial question in our world where so many are hungry and hurting and weary of war She calls us to live life fully not carefully or cautiously but wholly engaged with the world and with the messiness of humanity She dares us to act as the people we are called and created to be to claim our freedom to care to risk and to step out into the unknown Capturing the essence of her wisdom gained from years of world travel and experience Campbell offers inspiration and challenge for all who would claim their lives as people of hope

The Opposite of Hate Sally Kohn, 2018-04-10 A stunning debut by a truly gifted writer an eye opening read for both liberals and conservatives and it could not come at a better time Adam Grant New York Times bestselling author of Option B with Sheryl Sandberg What is the opposite of hate As a progressive commentator on Fox News and now CNN Sally Kohn has made a career out of bridging intractable political differences and learning how to talk respectfully with people whose views she disagrees with passionately Her viral TED Talk on the need to practice emotional rather than political correctness sparked a new way of considering how often we amplify our differences and diminish our connections But these days even famously nice Kohn finds herself wanting to breathe fire at her enemies It was time she decided to look into the epidemic of hate all around us and learn how we can stop it In The Opposite of Hate Kohn talks to leading scientists and researchers and investigates the evolutionary and cultural roots of hate and how incivility can be a gateway to much worse She travels to Rwanda the Middle East and across the United States introducing us to former terrorists and white supremacists and even some of her own Twitter trolls drawing surprising lessons from dramatic and inspiring stories of those who left hate behind As Kohn confronts her own shameful moments

whether it was back when she bullied a classmate or today when she harbors deep partisan resentment she discovers The opposite of hate is the beautiful and powerful reality of how we are all fundamentally linked and equal as human beings The opposite of hate is connection Sally Kohn's engaging fascinating and often funny book will open your eyes and your heart

Making Documentary Films and Videos Barry Hampe, 2007-12-10 Outlines each step in creating documentaries from conception to final film and offers advice on capturing human behavior and recreating past events with advice on how to get started in the field a section on researching and developing a project and current resources Decoding International Law Susan Tiefenbrun, 2010-05-06 Violations of international law and human rights laws are the plague of the 20th and 21st centuries People's inhumanity to people escalates as wars proliferate and respect for human rights and the laws of war diminish Decoding International Law analyses international law as represented artfully in the humanities Black Newspapers Index, 2006 What Works in Teaching and Learning, 2007 Touching the Heart William J. Bausch, 2007 No one can write about storytelling like Father Bill Bausch Both his words and his stories are compelling convincing and completely absorbing Here in this landmark work which he insists is his last his goal is to help readers see the centrality of stories to read and hear Scripture as story and not as history and to learn to enrich and expand their lives by looking at the story behind the story He wants to break readers out of the literalism that constricts their spiritual and social lives so they might gain an appreciation of metaphor and symbol and the sacramentality of the world British Humanities Index, 2005
