Science, the Departments of State, Justice, and Commerce, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2006: National Academy of Public Administration, ... Government Accountability Office United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Science, State, Justice, and Commerce, and Related Agencies, 2005     A Vision of Justice Susan Crawford Sullivan, Ron Pagnucco, 2014-04-28 A Vision of Justice Engaging Catholic Social Teaching on the College Campus draws together the insights of social scientists historians and theologians in order to introduce readers to central topics in Catholic Social Teaching and to provide concrete examples of how it is being put into action by colleges and college students The authors bring their disciplinary backgrounds and knowledge of Catholic Social Teaching to the exploration of the issues making the book suitable for use in a wide range of courses and settings Discussion questions at the end of each chapter help readers to think about issues raised in the essays and to think creatively about Catholic Social Teaching in an ever changing world The authors invite readers to join them in engaging contemporary thought and experience in the light of Catholic Social Teaching and the college campus     Career Construction Theory and Life Writing Hywel Dix, 2021-05-13 This volume applies the insight and methods of career construction theory to explore how autobiographical writing is used in different professional careers from fiction and journalism to education and medicine It draws attention to the fact that a career is a particular kind of artefact with distinctive properties and features that can be analysed and compared and puts forward a new theory of the relationship between narrative methodology and the vocation of writing Career construction theory emerged in the late twentieth century when changes to the patterns of our working lives caused large numbers of people to seek new forms of vocational guidance to navigate those changes It employs a narrative paradigm in which periods of uncertainty are treated as experiences akin to writer's block experiences which can be overcome first by imagining new character arcs then by narrating them and finally by performing them By encouraging clients to see their careers as stories of which they are both the metaphorical authors and the main protagonists career construction counsellors enable them to envisage the next chapter in those stories But despite the authorial metaphor career construction theory has not been widely applied to analysis of professional careers in writing The chapters in this volume remedy that gap and in various ways apply the insights of career construction theory to analyse the relationship between writing and professional life in diverse careers where writing is used The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Life Writing     Roger Ebert's Movie Yearbook 2013 Roger Ebert, 2012-12-04 Roger Ebert's criticism shows a nearly unequalled grasp of film history and technique and formidable intellectual range New York Times Pulitzer Prize winning film critic Roger Ebert presents more than 600 full length critical movie reviews along with interviews tributes and journal entries inside Roger Ebert's Movie Yearbook 2013 It includes every movie review Ebert has written from January 2010 to July 2012 Also included in the Yearbook In depth interviews with newsmakers and celebrities Tributes to those in the film industry who have passed away recently Essays on the Oscars reports from the Toronto Film Festival and entries into Ebert's Little Movie Glossary     The Art of Human Rights

Romola Adeola, Michael Gyan Nyarko, Adebayo Okeowo, Frans Viljoen, 2020-03-24 This book highlights the use of art in human rights specifically within Africa It advances an innovative pattern of thinking that explores the intersection between art and human rights law In recent years art has become an important tool for engagement on several human rights issues In view of its potency and yet potential to be a danger when misused this book seeks to articulate the use of arts in the human rights discourse in its different forms Chapters cover how music photography literature photojournalism soap opera commemorations sculpting and theatre can be used as an expression of human rights This book demonstrates how arts have become a formidable expression of thoughts and a means of articulating reality in a form that simplifies truth and congregates resolve to advance change

Darfur Allegory Rogaia Mustafa Abusaraf, 2021-03-16 The Darfur conflict exploded in early 2003 when two rebel groups the Sudan Liberation Movement and the Justice and Equality Movement struck national military installations in Darfur to send a hard hitting message of resentment over the region's political and economic marginalization The conflict devastated the region's economy shredded its fragile social fabric and drove millions of people from their homes Darfur Allegory is a dispatch from the humanitarian crisis that explains the historical and ethnographic background to competing narratives that have informed international responses At the heart of the book is Sudanese anthropologist Rogaia Abusharaf's critique of the pseudoscientific notions of race and ethnicity that posit divisions between Arab northerners and African Darfuris Elaborated in colonial times and enshrined in policy afterwards such binary categories have been adopted by the media to explain the civil war in Darfur The narratives that circulate internationally are thus highly fraught and cover over to counterproductive effect forms of Darfurian activism that have emerged in the conflict's wake Darfur Allegory marries the analytical precision of a committed anthropologist with an insider's view of Sudanese politics at home and in the diaspora laying bare the power of words to heal or perpetuate civil conflict

The Brokeback Book William R. Handley, 2011-05-01 An American Western made by a Taiwanese director and filmed in Canada Brokeback Mountain was a global cultural phenomenon even before it became the highest grossing gay themed drama in film history Few films have inspired as much passion and debate or produced as many contradictory responses from online homage to late night parody In this wide ranging and incisive collection writers journalists scholars and ordinary viewers explore the film and Annie Proulx's original story as well as their ongoing cultural and political significance The contributors situate Brokeback Mountain in relation to gay civil rights the cinematic and literary Western the Chinese value of forbearance male melodrama and urban and rural working lives across generations and genders The Brokeback Book builds on earlier debates by novelist David Leavitt critic Daniel Mendelsohn producer James Schamus and film reviewer Kenneth Turan with new and noteworthy interpretations of the Brokeback phenomenon the film and its legacy Also appearing in print for the first time is Michael Silverblatt's interview with Annie Proulx about the story she wrote and the film it became

From Box Office to Ballot Box M. Keith Booker, 2007-02-28 Given the complexity and expense of making and distributing a film the process of filmmaking is by its very nature a political process Moreover given the power and persuasiveness of the cinema as a medium film can be a powerful political tool It should thus come as no surprise that film has had a long and extensive engagement with a variety of political topics ranging from the actual mechanics of governance to electoral politics to any number of specific political issues Through a film by film examination of the movies explicitly concerned with American politics and American political issues From Box Office to Ballot Box provides valuable new insights into our culture s perceptions of various political environments and serves as a witness to the cinema s own complex contribution to the media s coverage of and relationship to American politics at large From Box Office to Ballot Box takes as its subject films exploring the electoral process the process of governing and the involvement of the media in both Separate chapters also deal with films related to specific political issues or phenomena that are particularly relevant to the above three categories including labor and class the Cold War the Vietnam War and the other recent conflicts in which the media has played such a large role Specific films discussed include Citizen Kane All the King s Men The Manchurian Candidate All the Presidents Men The Front M A S H JFK Nixon Wag the Dog Three Kings Black Hawk Down The Quiet American The Contender and many more

A Horrible Experience of Unbearable Length Roger Ebert, 2022-05-24 More of the Pulitzer Prize winning film critic s most scathing reviews A Horrible Experience of Unbearable Length collects more than 200 of his reviews from 2006 to 2012 in which he gave movies two stars or fewer Known for his fair minded and well written film reviews Roger is at his razor sharp humorous best when skewering bad movies Consider this opener for the one star Your Highness Your Highness is a juvenile excrescence that feels like the work of 11 year old boys in love with dungeons dragons warrior women pot boobs and four letter words That this is the work of David Gordon Green beggars the imagination One of its heroes wears the penis of a minotaur on a string around his neck I hate it when that happens And finally the inspiration for the title of this book the one star Transformers Revenge of the Fallen Transformers Revenge of the Fallen is a horrible experience of unbearable length briefly punctuated by three or four amusing moments One of these involves a doglike robot humping the leg of the heroine If you want to save yourself the ticket price go into the kitchen cue up a male choir singing the music of hell and get a kid to start banging pots and pans together Then close your eyes and use your imagination Roger Ebert s I Hated Hated Hated This Movie and Your Movie Sucks which gathered some of his most scathing reviews were bestsellers This collection continues the tradition reviewing not only movies that were at the bottom of the barrel but also movies that he found underneath the barrel Movie buffs and humor lovers alike will relish this treasury of movies so bad that you may just want to see them for a good laugh
