Houghton Mifflin Grade 4 Titanic:

One Hundred and Sixty Minutes William Elliott Hazelgrove, 2021-09-01 One hundred and sixty minutes That is all the time rescuers would have before the largest ship in the world slipped beneath the icy Atlantic There was amazing heroism and astounding incompetence against the backdrop of the most advanced ship in history sinking by inches with luminaries from all over the world It is a story of a network of wireless operators on land and sea who desperately sent messages back and forth across the dark frozen North Atlantic to mount a rescue mission More than twenty eight ships would be involved in the rescue of Titanic survivors along with four different countries At the heart of the rescue are two young Marconi operators Jack Phillips 25 and Harold Bride 22 tapping furiously and sending electromagnetic waves into the black night as the room they sat in slanted toward the icy depths and not stopping until the bone numbing water was around their ankles Then they plunged into the water after coordinating the largest rescue operation the maritime world had ever seen and thereby saving 710 people by their efforts The race to save the largest ship in the world from certain death would reveal both heroes and villains It would begin at 11 40 PM on April 14 when the iceberg was struck and would end at 2 20 AM April 15 when her lights blinked out and left 1500 people thrashing in 25 degree water Although the race to save Titanic survivors would stretch on beyond this most people in the water would die but the amazing thing is that of the 2229 people 710 did not and this was the success of the Titanic rescue effort We see the Titanic as a great tragedy but a third of the people were rescued and the only reason every man woman and child did not succumb to the cold depths is due to Jack Phillips and Harold McBride in an insulated telegraph room known as the Silent Room These two men tapping out CQD and SOS distress codes while the ship took on water at the rate of 400 tons per minute from a three hundred foot gash would inaugurate the most extensive rescue operation in maritime history using the cutting edge technology of the time wireless Get Those Guys Reading! Kathleen A. The Bookman , 1913      Sinkable Daniel Stone, 2022-08-16 From the national bestselling author of The Food Explorer a fascinating and rollicking plunge into the story of the world s most famous shipwreck the RMS Titanic On a frigid April night in 1912 the world s largest and soon most famous ocean liner struck an iceberg and slipped beneath the waves She had scarcely disappeared before her new journey began a seemingly limitless odyssey through the world s fixation with her every tragic detail Plans to find and raise the Titanic began almost immediately Yet seven decades passed before it was found Why And of some three million shipwrecks that litter the ocean floor why is the world still so fascinated with this one In Sinkable Daniel Stone spins a fascinating tale of history science and obsession uncovering the untold story of the Titanic not as a ship but as a shipwreck He explores generations of eccentrics like American Charles Smith whose 1914 recovery plan using a synchronized armada of ships bearing electromagnets was complex convincing and utterly impossible Jack Grimm a Texas oil magnate who fruitlessly dropped a fortune to find the wreck after failing to find Noah s Ark and the British Doug Woolley a former pantyhose factory worker who has claimed since the 1960s to be the true owner of the Titanic wreckage Along the way Sinkable takes readers through the two miles of ocean water in which the Titanic sank showing how the ship broke apart and why and delves into the odd history of our understanding of such depths Author Daniel Stone studies the landscape of the seabed which in the Titanic's day was thought to be as smooth and featureless as a bathtub. He interviews scientists to understand the decades of rust and decomposition that are slowly but surely consuming the ship. It is expected to disappear entirely within a few decades. He even journeys over the Atlantic during a global pandemic to track down the elusive Doug Woolley. And Stone turns inward, looking at his own dark obsession with both the Titanic and shipwrecks in general and why he spends hours watching ships sink on YouTube. Brimming with humor, curiosity, and wit, Sinkable follows in the tradition of Susan Orlean and Bill Bryson, offering up a page-turning work of personal journalism and an immensely entertaining romp through the deep sea and the nature of obsession. Houghton Mifflin Reading, 2004 Literacy for the 21st Century Research-based classroom-tested ideas are spelled out to help teachers select from among the many wonderful nonfiction trade books available. Incorporate nonfiction into the classroom. Work with students to develop comprehension strategies for informational texts. Elicit responses to nonfiction through drama, writing, and discussion. Use nonfiction to promote content area learning and research skills. Unique features of the book include teacher-created lesson plans, extensive lists of recommended books including choices for reluctant readers, illustrative examples of student work, and suggestions for linking nonfiction reading to the use of the World Wide Web. Best Books for Children, Preschool Through Grade 6, 2006 Radical Narratives of the Black Atlantic Alan Rice, 2003-04-30 Broad-based survey of trans-Atlantic black culture. Newest book in the popular Black Atlantic series. Radical Narratives of the Black Atlantic is a multi-faceted and interdisciplinary take on trans-Atlantic black culture. Alan Rice engages fully with Paul Gilroy's paradigm of the Black Atlantic through examination of a broad array of cultural genres including music, dance, folklore, and oral literature, fine art, material culture, film, and literature. The aspects of black culture under discussion range from black British gravesites to sea shanties, from the novels of Toni Morrison to the paintings of the Zanzibar-born black British artist Lubaina Himid, and from King Kong to the travels of Frederick Douglass and Paul Robeson. The book places such figures as the African American traveller and Barbary slave narrator Robert Adams and the West Indian slave narrator Mary Prince in a Black Atlantic context that explicates them fully. A chapter on the Titanic disaster shows how diasporan Africans composed oral poems about the disaster to criticise the discriminatory practices of its owners and racial imperialism. Overall, the book argues for the crucial importance of Black Atlantic cultures in the formation of our modern world. Moreover, it argues that looking at Black culture and history through a national lens is distorting and reductive. The Independent William Livingston, 1915 A Historical Guide to Henry James John Carlos Rowe, Eric Haralson, 2012-02-16 An excellent primer to
