

Interview With Angela Coker

Angela Coker is an American director and scriptwriter. In 2018, her film "Aboard Love" released, and was based on the novel "Froth on the Daydream" by Boris Vian claimed Oscar.

Consequently, she has become the second female film director to win the Academy Award for Best Director.

On occasion of this great achievement, Local News has interviewed Angela Coker in her house in Los Angeles to learn more about her career and success.

Local News: We are sure that you are aware of the fact that Oscar-winning female directors are extremely rare. What is the main reason for this tendency, in your opinion?

Angela Coker: I think that this tendency can somehow be reasoned by gender stereotypes.

Cinematography is a man's world, even nowadays. Still, I hope that my success may change it, at least a bit.

LN: Did the work of Kathryn Ann Bigelow, who won the Oscar in 2008, inspire you? Or do you have other sources of inspiration?

AC: Of course, I was very glad to know that the award for Best Director is also for women.

Anyway, I admire Kathryn Ann Bigelow, but I've had another source of inspiration – my own love story. In fact, "Aboard Love" is a synthesis of Vian's novel and a real-life example. But it is too personal to tell anybody.
