Construction of 'Race' (RLE Edu J) Peter Figueroa,2012-06-14 Does the education system help or hinder the fight against racism This volume provides a constructive critique of the Swan Report of 1985 and of sociological research into racial and ethnic relations The author undertakes a searching philosophical and sociological analysis of multicultural and antiracist education He shows how the education system itself can reinforce racist assumptions and behaviour in society but also argues that through educational and social reconstructing it can promote constructive cross cultural relations Gifted

Children Kate Distin,2006 Gifted Children is a lively and informative exploration of the mystery of the gifted mind and the social and emotional needs of gifted children and their families The authors give an insight into what is normal for gifted children acknowledge the difficulties they experience and offer pointers for parents on how to support them Daily

Graphic Sam Clegg,1992-11-04 Counting Girls Out Valerie Walkerdine,1998 The question about girls attainment in mathematics is met with every kind of myth false evidence and theorizing about the gendered body and the gendered mind The Girls and Mathematics Unit led by Valerie Walkerdine has over a period of ten years carried out a detailed theoretical and empirical investigation in this area The book tackles issues and prejudice and examines and puts into perspective many claims that have been made about women s minds It also probes the relationship between evidence and explanation why are girls still taken to be lacking when they perform well but boys are credited even when they do not Continental Drift

Constantin Roman,2000-01-01 Continental Drift Colliding Continents Converging Cultures is as much an account of the impressions Western culture made on Constantin Roman as a young researcher from behind the Iron Curtain as a personal history of the developing new science of plate tectonics The book elucidates the author s struggles against a web of bureaucracy to secure hi Effective Assessment and the Improvement of Education Roger Murphy,Patricia

Broadfoot,2017-09-29 Originally published in 1995 this volume brings together twenty classic contributions from the work of Desmond Nuttall as an educational researcher thinker and policy adviser A full commentary by two of his former colleagues who knew him well accompanies the text They have set out to explain and explore the essence of his contribution to others Much in the book is as relevant today as when the articles were written put together they form a formidable collection The book was published in the year after Desmond s death It is hoped it will remain a fitting tribute to him It will remind his friends of his classic ideas and brings together in one volume contributions that students of education may have missed

Schools, Parents and Governors Joan Sallis,2019-12-09 Originally published in 1988 this book was an up to the minute account of the way in which recent government initiatives including the 1986 Act would affect accountability and the quest for greater partnership between schools and parents It pinpoints the central issues of the current debates at the time in a lucid and highly readable way asking how public commitment to education can be created and sustained how minimum standards can be reconciled with local variety and freedom how choice for parents can be reconciled with equal opportunity for children how less confident and articulate parents can become involved and how a sense of common purpose can be fostered among the confident minority The book provided an up to date assessment of progress in parental involvement an account of the recent movement here and overseas and a detailed working guide to the development of school government under the 1986 Act and beyond While providing an important critique of the consumerist approach to education the author argues the case illustrated with practical examples for a new approach emphasising partnership mutual accountability better communication more open habits be LEAs and more democratic practices within schools involving staff governors and parents

Sociology in Perspective Mark Kirby,2000 This text specifically for AQA specifications is designed to be easy and encouraging for students to use The book contains updated material and activities together with a new chapter on study skills It also indicates clearly where activities meet the new evidence requirements for key skills

Assessment In Secondary Schools Val Brooks,2002-01-16 This is a very important book Assessment is one of the most technically and professionally challenging of topics for new teachers Val Brooks has brought her own impressive technical expertise to bear and sets out the key professional demands in a thorough logical and clear way The book draws extensively on practical examples which exemplify and develop the argument New teachers will find it an invaluable guide experienced teachers will find that it widens their understanding of assessment as a tool for learning Chris Husbands University of Warwick Mentors will find much to aid their sessions with student teachers while senior staff responsible for professional development will have a sound easily read source of material Highly recommended British Journal of Educational Studies How can new teachers use assessment to enhance their teaching How can assessment help pupils to learn What are the arrangements for testing and examinations and the statutory assessment requirements at secondary school level This book is aimed at students who are preparing to teach in secondary schools and newly qualified teachers in their induction year The entire text is devoted to assessment and therefore it is able to offer an in depth consideration of aspects of assessment which exercise teachers at the beginning of their career for example the relationship between assessment and learning how assessment contributes to planning ways of marking pupils work writing reports for parents and meetings with parents Although it is informed by theory and research the text has a practical orientation It provides practical examples for readers to consider in developing their own practices and makes suggestions for activities intended to help beginning teachers to develop their own ideas and insights into assessment The text is written for a graduate and undergraduate audience and aims to promote a thoughtful well informed approach to assessment and critical awareness of issues which arise out of practice

Re-Reading Richard Hoggart Sue Owen, 2009-03-26 Richard Hoggart has been one of the leading cultural commentators of the last sixty years He was the first literary critic to take the working class seriously and to extend the parameters of literary criticism to include popular culture Hoggart put the working class on the cultural map He differentiated between what was offered by the popular providers media popular fiction advertisements and the resilient culture of working class people themselves Hoggart's most famous work is the seminal The Uses of Literacy Part II written first offers a searing indictment of the specious populism and banality of popular newspapers and magazines the fake pally patter of the tabloids and of adverts aimed at ordinary people and the literary flatness and moral emptiness of much popular fiction Part I celebrates the resilient culture of working class people themselves and offers a basis for the argument that working class people deserve better than what passes for popular culture Though best known for The Uses of Literacy Hoggart has been a prolific writer publishing twenty seven books including two in 2004 at the age of eighty seven These range from works of cultural analysis such as The Way We Live Now to works of personal reflection such as First and Last Things and Promises to Keep and to collections of essays on a wide variety of topics such as the two volumes of Speaking to Each Other Between Two Worlds and An English Temper One of his most important contributions to the transformation of perceptions of class and culture was the founding of the Centre for Contemporary Cultural Studies at Birmingham University in the early 1960s For Hoggart public service is a duty of the intellectual Therefore he has not lived in the ivory tower but has engaged in society striving for change from within He worked for five years as Assistant Director General of UNESCO and has undertaken many activities in arts culture broadcasting and education including the Albermarle Committee on Youth Services the Pilkington Committee on Broadcasting Reith Lecturer Chair of the Broadcasting Research Unit Vice Chair of the Arts Council Chair of the Statesman and Nation Publishing Company Chair of the Advisory Council for Adult and Continuing Education and member of the British Board of Film Classification Appeals Committee Hoggart was a leading witness for the defence in the trial at the Old Bailey in 1960 of Penguin Books Ltd for publishing D H Lawrence's Lady Chatterley's Lover His evidence is widely acknowledged to have been central in leading to the acquittal which marked a watershed in public perception and shifted cultural parameters Hoggart was also the first British critic to take TV and radio seriously He made a number of critical interventions his Reith lectures his contributions to the report of the Pilkington Committee and his works on media including Only Connect on the Nature and Quality of Mass Communications The Mass Media A New Colonialism and Mass Media in Mass Society Hated by Margaret Thatcher and Mary Whitehouse Hoggart nevertheless strove to serve culture in the public sphere as an important extension of his ideas about the need for cultural quality This volume affirms the importance of Richard Hoggart focusing in particular on new understandings of his life of the importance of literature and literary criticism to his method and of his significant role in literary cultural and educational shifts from the fifties onwards It locates Hoggart's work and identifies his influence within multiple contexts the working class and angry young man novels of the fifties and sixties the Lady Chatterley trial and resulting literary and cultural change the shift from the new criticism to a broader field of cultural enquiry the rise of cultural studies and educational reforms from the fifties onwards My Year With a Horse Hazel Southam, 2016-07-22 Hazel had been scared of horses for all her life and an earlier attempt to overcome her fear had ended in failure She was still overcoming fear in other areas travelling around the world with her job reporting on areas recovering from war famine disease and catastrophe And eventually she took up riding again only to face bigger fears when illness struck her Even worse her father's dementia grew so bad that her mother had a heart attack and Hazel had to put her father into a home As illness threatened to derail her career and family tragedy looked likely to break her heart she was loaned a big old horse called Duke He stood far taller than her at every point and she was afraid Yet somehow as she rode him through the Hampshire countryside she found solace and healing Gradually her fears began to subside
