The Decisive Campaigns of the Desert Air Force, 1942-1945 Bryn Evans, 2014-04-30. Absorbing this is an excellent account of air operations and tactics of the air battles in North Africa, the Mediterranean and Italy. Firetrench Compared to the RAF's Fighter and Bomber Commands, the Desert Air Force (DAF) is far less well known yet its achievements were spectacular. DAF led the way in North Africa and Italy in pioneering new tactics in close Army Air Force cooperation on the battlefield. DAF and Allied air forces gave Allied armies in North Africa and Italy a decisive cutting edge. While the Axis forces used the many rivers and mountains of Tunisia and Italy to slow the Allies' advance, DAF was there to provide that extra mobile firepower, the artillery from the sky. They were the first multinational air force and the first to introduce air controllers in the front lines of the battlefield. With first hand accounts by veteran airmen from Britain, Australia, Canada, New Zealand, South Africa and the USA, this book tells the previously untold story of how the DAF was the most decisive single factor in winning the three battles of El Alamein and victory in the North Africa and Italy campaigns. Yorkshire Evening Post. A most welcome addition to the historiography of the air aspects of the war in North Africa and the wider Mediterranean, it will have considerable appeal to a wide ranging readership but especially those interested in the tactical detail and personal experiences of the airmen involved in the various campaigns. British Journal for Military History.

Flying, Fighting and Reflection Peter Jacobs, 2018-09-30. This is the thrilling account of the last remaining Battle of Britain ace fighter pilot Tom Ginger Neil. Neil was one of an elite band nicknamed The Few by Winston Churchill; he flew Hurricanes during 141 combat missions in that battle and went on to command the first Spitfire XII squadron during 1942-43 as the RAF went on the offensive in north west Europe. In this, the only full account of Neil's life to be published in collaboration with his family, we learn how he became a poster boy for the war effort and how he credits his sixth sense for keeping him alive during the Second World War. There was however one terrifyingly close brush with death when in 1940 he had a mid air collision with another Hurricane With the rear section of his aircraft gone the plane was out of control and hurtling to the ground yet somehow he managed to bail out and miraculously survived with only a minor leg injury As well as RAF service during the Siege of Malta Wing Commander Neil who is now in his late nineties also served with the Americans during the D Day landings During his career Neil was awarded two Distinguished Flying Crosses for the destruction of at least fourteen enemy aircraft and was a successful test pilot after the war before commanding a jet fighter reconnaissance squadron in Egypt s troubled Canal Zone during the 1950s for which he was awarded the Air Force Cross With contributions from the man himself this book also looks at his life after the RAF and his career as a successful author For military buffs and novices alike it is a must read account of a true war hero

Never Surrender Mark Felton,2013-06-30 While there have been many fine books covering the appalling experiences and great courage of the many thousands of POWs captured by the victorious Japanese during late 1941 and early 1942 escape accounts are much rarer This is due in large part to the fact that only a comparatively small number of brave souls attempted to escape to freedom rather than suffer brutality starvation and very possibly death as POWs However as Never Surrender vividly describes there were a significant number who took this desperate course Escapers faced challenges far more daunting than those in German hands They were Westerners in an alien hostile environment the terrain and climate were extreme disease was rife their physical condition was weak there was every chance of starvation and betrayal and if captured they faced at best the harshest punishment and at worst execution The author draws on escape attempts from Hong Kong Thailand the Philippines Borneo and China by officers and men of the British Commonwealth and US armed forces As this superbly researched and uplifting book reveals few escapers found freedom but all are inspiring examples of outstanding and indeed desperate courage The stories told within these pages demonstrate the best and worst of human spirit
