Effective and Legitimate Governance in Areas of Limited

Statehood Eric Stollenwerk, 2023-11-01 How can effective and legitimate governance be ensured where state institutions are weak This is a key question for domestic and international politics One answer to this question that has received considerable attention in political science but also among development agencies and international organizations is virtuous circles of governance In such circles effective and legitimate governance are thought to be mutually reinforcing The idea is that more effective governance leads to more legitimacy and more legitimacy to more effectiveness in governance In many parts of the world however state institutions are weak and citizens perceive governance as ineffective and governance actors lack legitimacy This places a large question mark behind the idea of virtuous circles of governance Effective and Legitimate Governance in Areas of Limited Statehood asks How likely are virtuous circles of governance to evolve in areas of limited statehood The central claim of this book is that virtuous circles of governance are possible in areas of limited statehood but more likely to evolve for external and non state actors than for the state The state is often part of the governance problem rather than the solution Based on a new theoretical model for the interplay between effective and legitimate governance the study provides in depth empirical evidence for its argument by drawing on innovative qualitative and quantitative data The case studies of Sub Saharan Africa Nigeria and Afghanistan underline the key argument by considering state external and non state actors The book offers conceptual innovations new empirical evidence and policy recommendations of how to ensure effective and legitimate governance in areas of limited statehood Bright spots demonstrate community successes in African agriculture

F. W. T. Penning de Vries, 2005 The International Conference on Successes in African Agriculture in the Greater Horn of Africa held in Nairobi in November 2004 had three main sections one on Regional Food Security one on Commodity Successes and one on Community Successes The summary document published by NEPAD provides a good overview of this Conference This document presents four of the five papers presented in the Community Successes section each enhanced after comments from participants and working group discussion sessions It also presents an overall summary with lessons learned and a set of examples of Community Successes or Bright Spots The Oxford

Handbook of the International Law of Global Security Robin Geiß, Nils Melzer, 2021-02-16 Understanding the global security environment and delivering the necessary governance responses is a central challenge of the 21st century On a global scale the central regulatory tool for such responses is public international law But what is the state role and relevance of public international law in today's complex and highly dynamic global security environment Which concepts of security are anchored in international law How is the global security environment shaping international law and how is international law in turn influencing other normative frameworks The Oxford Handbook of the International Law of Global Security provides a ground breaking overview of the relationship between international law and global security It constitutes a comprehensive and systematic mapping of the various sub fields of international law dealing with global security challenges and offers authoritative guidance on key trends and debates around the relationship between public international law and global security governance This Handbook highlights the central role of public international law in an effective global security architecture and in doing so addresses some of the most pressing legal and policy challenges of our time The Handbook features original contributions by leading scholars and practitioners from a wide range of professional and disciplinary backgrounds reflecting the fluidity of the concept of global security and the diversity of scholarship in this area COVID-19 Impact on Tourism Performance in Africa Peter Chihwai,2024-04-29 This book examines the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on tourism performance in Africa It covers a wide range of topics that will interest academic readers and researchers including the effects of COVID 19 on various segments of the tourism sector The aim is to provide a deeper understanding of the damage caused by the pandemic enriching future research based on the findings and conclusions presented in the book The research presented in this book is new and original representing different perspectives from across Africa s 52 countries It offers valuable insights for the business world on how to adapt and adopt communication strategies during crises such as COVID 19 Themes such as innovation service quality and continuous improvement during the pandemic are explored providing lessons that can benefit the tourism industry in navigating similar challenges in the future Additionally the book discusses the future of tourism presenting various perspectives on what the future holds for the tourism industry This provides an exciting platform for tourism stakeholders to learn about the future of the sector from diverse and knowledgeable angles The unique perspectives offered especially those from Africa will appeal to a wide and diverse audience including ecotourists educational tourists adventure tourists governments academics and other stakeholders Protected Areas and Tourism in Southern Africa Lesego Senyana Stone,Moren Tibabo Stone,Patricia Kefilwe Mogomotsi,Goemeone E.J. Mogomotsi,2022-03-23 This volume discusses the complex relationship between Protected Areas and tourism and their impact on community livelihoods in a range of countries in Southern Africa Protected areas and tourism have an enduring and symbiotic relationship While protected areas offer a desirable setting for tourism products tourism provides revenue that can contribute to conservation efforts This can bring benefits to local communities but it can also have a negative impact with the establishment of protected areas leading to the eviction of local communities from their original places of residence while also preventing them from accessing the natural resources they once enjoyed Taking a multi disciplinary approach this book addresses the opportunities and challenges faced by communities and other stakeholders as they endeavour to achieve their conservation goals and work towards improving community livelihoods Case studies from Botswana Malawi Namibia South Africa Tanzania Zambia and Zimbabwe address key issues such as human wildlife conflicts ecotourism wildlife based tourism landscape governance wildlife crop raiding and trophy hunting including the high profile case of Cecil the lion Chapters highlight both the achievements and positive outcomes of protected areas but also the challenges faced and their impact on how protected areas are viewed and also conservation priorities more generally The volume gives these issues affecting protected areas local communities managers and international conservation efforts

Relanguaging Language from a South African Township School Lara-Stephanie Krause-Alzaidi, 2021-12-20 Using data from a long term ethnographic study of English language classrooms in a South African township this book highlights linguistic expertise in a setting where it is not usually expected or sought Rather than being peripheral and unskilled South African township teachers and learners emerge as skilled re languagers central to the workings of South African education and to our understanding of how language classrooms work This book foregrounds the heterogeneity flexibility and creativity of day to day language practices that African urban spaces are known for and conceptualises language teaching not as a progression from one fixed language to another but as a circular sorting process between linguistic heterogeneity languaging and homogeneity a standard language

Women, visibility and morality in Kenyan popular media Dina Ligaga, 2020-02-03 Women visibility and morality in Kenyan popular media explores familiar constructions of femininity to assess ways in which it circulates in discourse both stereotypically and otherwise It assesses the meanings of such discourses and their articulations in various public platforms in Kenya The book draws together theoretical questions on pre convened scripts that contain or condition how women can circulate in public The book asks questions about particular interpretations of womens bodies that are considered transgressive or unruly and why these bodies become significant symbolic sites for the generation of knowledge on morality and sexuality The book also poses questions about genre and representations of femininity The assertion made is that for knowledges of femininity to circulate effectively they must be melodramatic spectacular and scandalous Ultimately the book asks how such a theorisation of popular modes of representation enable a better understanding of the connections between gender sexuality and violence in Kenya

The Nonprofit Sector Walter W Powell, Patricia Bromley, 2023-05-25 Timely unique and definitive not only chronicles the history of the nonprofit sector but also provides a broad but critical analysis of its current state Vartan Gregorian President Carnegie Corporation of New York The nonprofit sector has changed in fundamental ways in recent decades As the sector has grown in scope and size both domestically and internationally the boundaries between for profit governmental and charitable organizations have become intertwined Nonprofits are increasingly challenged on their roles in mitigating or exacerbating inequality And debates flare over the role of voluntary organizations in democratic and autocratic societies alike The Nonprofit Sector takes up these concerns and offers a cutting edge empirical and theoretical assessment of the state of the field This book now in its third edition brings together leading researchers economists historians philosophers political scientists and sociologists along with scholars from communication education law management and policy schools to investigate the impact of associational life Chapters consider the history of the nonprofit sector and of philanthropy the politics of the public sphere governance mission and engagement access and inclusion and global perspectives on nonprofit organizations Across this comprehensive range of topics The Nonprofit Sector makes an essential contribution to the study of civil society Praise for previous editions Takes a decidedly multidisciplinary approach invaluable Journal of Policy Analysis and Management A major contribution to the field Social Forces

Death and Life of Nature in Asian Cities Anne Rademacher, K. Sivaramakrishnan, 2021-09-10 Death and Life of Nature in Asian Cities explores the encounter between two processes that are unfolding in diverse patterns across Asia the rapid urbanization of Asia across big cities smaller towns and the newest urban concentrations and the contentious debates and novel schemes by which nature is figured and emplaced in cities and their conurbations Contemporary Asian cities displace nature by causing its death and withering but also embrace it through acts of renewal and the pursuit of sustainability Contributors in this volume gather case studies from across Asia to address projects of urban greening and reimagining nature in urban life The book illustrates how the intersection of urban growth and urban nature is a place rich with fresh ideas about urban planning governance and social life This book illuminates a continuing process of discovery and regeneration through which urban natures may well be moving from taken for granted infrastructures to more consciously experienced sites of interplay between non human life and materials and daily human life experiences Debates and efforts to recover nature in the city provoke moral and ethical evaluations of the human ecology of city life and direct ecologies of urbanism into new avenues like aesthetics care perception and stewardship This fascinating collection of essays brings together a series of cutting edge insights into Asian cities caught in the maelstrom of global environmental change A particular strength of this book is its commitment to forms of interdisciplinary dialogue and conceptual engagement that unsettle existing geographies of knowledge Matthew Gandy University of Cambridge author of Natura Urbana Ecological Constellations in Urban Space This impressive collection on urban ecologies moves beyond the anthropocentric city to expand our understanding of cities as multispecies spaces of active collaboration decay and regeneration offering new possibilities for the flourishing of urban life both human and non human and the design of more just and sustainable cities for all Christina Schwenkel University of California Riverside author of Building Socialism The Afterlife of East German Architecture in Urban Vietnam
