Krug, 2018-09-05 Rebecca Krug argues that in the later Middle Ages people defined themselves in terms of family relationships but increasingly saw their social circumstances as being connected to the written word Complex family dynamics and social configurations motivated women to engage in text based activities Although not all or even the majority of women could read and write it became natural for women to think of writing as a part of everyday life Reading Families looks at the literate practice of two individual women Margaret Paston and Margaret Beaufort and of two communities in which women were central the Norwich Lollards and the Bridgettines at Syon Abbey The book begins with Paston's letters which were written at her husband's request and ends with devotional texts that describe the spiritual daughterhood of the Bridgettine readers Scholars often assume that medieval women's participation in literate culture constituted a rejection of patriarchal authority Krug maintains however that for most women learning to engage with the written word served as a practical response to social changes and was not necessarily a revolutionary act Concentrate Questions and Answers Equity and Trusts Margaret Wilkie, Rosalind Malcolm, Peter Luxton, 2016 This essential Q A study and revision guide contains a variety of model answers and plans to give you the confidence to tackle any essay or problem question and give you the skills you need to excel in law exams and coursework assignments The Coaching for Leadership Case Study Workbook Laurence S. Lyons, 2012-05-01 This book will change the way you think In this whacky world the best jobs go to the worst people Careers fizzle out at the drop of a hat To protect next year's budget you've got to waste whatever's left of this year's money Matrix

Reading Raps Rita Soltan,2005-12-30 Book clubs are sprouting up all over and so are book club guides but not all book club guides are equal Many focus on a specific type of book club or they take a generic approach of one size fits all and most do not take into account the special needs of librarians and educators working with young readers This guide has it all and it will help you ensure that your book club meetings are both fun and educational Focusing on children in grades 3 8 and their families the book offers 100 ready made book club instructions for popular children s and YA titles from newer releases such as Theresa Nelson s Ruby Electric and Blue Balliett s Chasing Vermeer to perennial favorites and award winning classics such as Johanna Hurwitz s Much Ado about Aldo and Gary Soto s Baseball in April and Other Stories Along with thought provoking discussion questions you ll find all the background information you need to conduct lively book discussions with a variety of readers plot summary themes and characters description genre reading level author and award information related reads and more The guide describes four types of family oriented book clubs family mother daughter father son and readers rap as well as a book club for kids only The author provides practical instructions for making each type of book club successful For each title she provides a plot summary characterization sketches questions to use for provocative discussion and follow up bibliographies on similar reads Notes on genres themes and reading levels are also provided The selected titles reflect some of the best most current and most popular children s literature In addition a broad scope of genres and multicultural titles are included Perfect for public library programs and after school book clubs this is a one stop resource with practical ready made plans that can easily be adapted to multiple environments Grades 3 8 A Guide to the Study of English History William Thomas Morgan,1926 Case Studies and Activities in Adult Education and Human Resource Development Steven W. Schmidt,Kathleen P. King,2010-09-01 Case studies have become a widely used instructional tool in many educational environments The use of case studies began in the 1950s at Harvard Business School Today they may be used as part of a course of study or as the main focus of a course to which other material is added While the use of case studies is prevalent in schools of business and medicine they are not often used in adult education or human resource development This may be because there are no current major publications that deal with the use of case studies in these disciplines nor are there any major databases of adult education or human resource development case studies for instructors to use Good case studies can bring reality into the classroom They can provide frameworks for discussion based on issues that must be faced in real life Complex case issues can be broken down and examined for greater understanding then pulled together again for resolution Case studies can be used successfully in adult education I propose a book based on the use of case based learning in adult education and human resource development HRD The book could be positioned as a supplement to course textbooks for courses in adult education and HRD I would write the cases and develop the exercises but could also get others to contribute a case study or exercise to the book Cases would each be a half page to maybe 2 3 pages at the long end and would include questions for students readers Supplementary information possibly in the form of a DVD could be put together for instructors This information would include case study focal points and examples of possible responses for each study exercise
