Handbook of Research on Academic Libraries as Partners in Data Science Ecosystems Mani, Nandita S., Cawley, Michelle A., 2022-05-06 Beyond providing space for data science activities academic libraries are often overlooked in the data science landscape that is emerging at academic research institutions Although some academic libraries are collaborating in specific ways in a small subset of institutions there is much untapped potential for developing partnerships As library and information science roles continue to evolve to be more data centric and interdisciplinary and as research using a variety of data types continues to proliferate it is imperative to further explore the dynamics between libraries and the data science ecosystems in which they are a part The Handbook of Research on Academic Libraries as Partners in Data Science Ecosystems provides a global perspective on current and future trends concerning the integration of data science in libraries It provides both a foundational base of knowledge around data science and explores numerous ways academicians can reskill their staff engage in the research enterprise contribute to curriculum development and help build a stronger ecosystem where libraries are part of data science Covering topics such as data science initiatives digital humanities and student engagement this book is an indispensable resource for librarians information professionals academic institutions researchers academic libraries and academicians Celebrating 50 years of ACAL Akinbiyi Akinlabi ,Lee Bickmore, Michael Cahill ,Michael Diercks, Laura J. Downing, James Essegbey, Katie Franich ,Laura McPherson ,Sharon Rose ,2021 The papers in this volume were presented at the 50th Annual Conference on African Linguistics held at the University of British Columbia in 2019 The contributions span a range of theoretical topics as well as topics in descriptive and applied linguistics The papers reflect the typological and genetic diversity of languages in Africa and also represent the breadth of the ACAL community with papers from both students and more senior scholars based in North America and beyond They thus provide a snapshot on current research in African linguistics from multiple perspectives To mark the 50th anniversary of the conference the volume editors reminisce in the introductory chapter about their memorable ACALs Discourses of Globalisation and Higher Education Reforms

Joseph Zajda, W. James Jacob, 2022-03-15 This book examines some of the major higher education reforms and policy shifts globally particularly in the light of recent shifts in quality and standards driven education and policy research It critiques the neo liberal ideological imperatives of current higher education and policy reforms and illustrates the way that changes in the relationship between the state and higher education policy affect current trends in higher education reforms Using diverse comparative education paradigms from critical theory to historical comparative research the chapters focus on globalisation ideology and higher education reforms and examine both the reasons and outcomes of higher education reforms and policy change The book analyses and evaluates the policy shifts in methodological approaches to globalisation and higher education reforms and their impact on education policy and pedagogy The book contributes in a very scholarly way to a more holistic understanding of the nexus between globalisation comparative education research and higher education reforms
