Ett Memorandum November 2014:

Migrants at Work Cathryn Costello, Mark Freedland, 2014-10-30 There is a highly significant and under considered intersection and interaction between migration law and labour law Labour lawyers have tended to regard migration law as generally speaking outside their purview and migration lawyers have somewhat similarly tended to neglect labour law The culmination of a collaborative project on Migrants at Work funded by the John Fell Fund the Society of Legal Scholars and the Research Centre at St John s College Oxford this volume brings together distinguished legal and migration scholars to examine the impact of migration law on labour rights and how the regulation of migration increasingly impacts upon employment and labour relations Examining and clarifying the interactions between migration migration law and labour law contributors to the volume identify the many ways that migration law as currently designed divides the objectives of labour law privileging concerns about the labour supply and demand over worker protective concerns In addition migration law creates particular forms of status which affect employment relations thereby dividing the subjects of labour law Chapters cover the labour laws of the UK Australia Ireland Israel Italy Germany Sweden and the US References are also made to discrete practices in Brazil France Greece New Zealand Mexico Poland and South Africa These countries all host migrants and have developed systems of migration law reflecting very different trajectories Some are traditional countries of immigration and settlement migration while others have traditionally been countries of emigration but now import many workers There are nonetheless common features in their immigration law which have a profound impact on labour law for instance in their shared contemporary shift to using temporary labour migration programmes Further chapters examine EU and international law on migration labour rights human rights and human trafficking and smuggling developing cross jurisdictional and multi level perspectives Written by leading scholars of labour law migration law and migration studies this book provides a diverse and multidisciplinary approach to this field of legal interaction of interest to academics policymakers legal practitioners trade unions and migrants groups alike

The Report: Mongolia 2014 Oxford Business Group, 2014-05-23 Since the country's transition from communism two decades ago the Mongolian economy has experienced rapid liberalisation Sectors including ICT and insurance are expanding quickly and while the mining sector has been responsible for making Mongolia a rising star in the global economy there is great potential for further growth in all economic sectors Politically stable and rich with natural resources Mongolia has emerged as a bellwether for investor confidence in recent years The 2013 commercialisation of the Oyu Tolgoi gold and copper mine is helping to diversify Mongolia's mineral exports away from coal while the government is working to improve the investment environment by adopting the new Investment Law among other measures Challenges do exist however from the long harsh winters that slow construction to the difficulty of connecting the sparsely populated nation through ICT and transport systems In response the government has partnered with the private sector on a number of fronts in order to promote economic diversification and competitiveness

Har vi varit på månen?

Lever vi på en roterande glob? Dragan D Urošević, 2020-01-21 I de urgamliga teorierna fortfarande hållbara i vår moderna värld Det diskuteras flitigt om månlandningarna verkligen gick hem och genomfördes i slutet av 60-talet och början av sjuttio-talet Var de verkligen på månen på jorden en spinnande boll som far runt i universum Eller är den stationär och orolig Kan det vara så att solen och månen är mindre än vad vi tror och cirkulerar runt jorden på några minuter avstånd Existerar satelliter och ISS International Space Station Vad vet vi om Antarktis förutom att det är väldigt kallt och att det är derifrån bud för oss att fara dit

Detering Russia in Europe Nora Vanaga, Toms Rostoks, 2018-09-21 This edited volume examines deterrence and the defense efforts of European states neighboring Russia following the Crimean intervention Deterrence after being largely absent from debates among academics and policy makers for almost a quarter of a century has made a comeback in Europe Since Russia's annexation of Crimea and the start of the military conflict in Ukraine's Donbass region eastern and northern European states have revised their assessments of Russia's policies and intentions The approach used by Russia in Ukraine has rendered lessons learned from the Cold War deterrence only partially applicable due to the changing security situation in Europe The emergence of the cyber realm a smaller emphasis on nuclear deterrence and the ideological conflict between Russia and the West are among the key differences between the Cold War and the current security environment Structured into two parts the first part discusses conceptual aspects of deterrence while the second discusses ten country case studies which include both NATO and non NATO countries This allows for an in depth analysis of the changing character of deterrence and its practical application by Russia s European neighbours This volume will be of much interest to students of strategic studies European politics Russian foreign policy security studies and international relations in general

,2014-04 Principles of Corporate Finance Law Eilís Ferran,Elizabeth Howell,Felix Steffek,2023-09-21 Corporate finance theory seeks to understand how incorporated firms address the financial constraints that affect their investment decisions This is achieved by using varied financial instruments that seek to give holders different claims on the firm's assets Recent scholarship in this area has highlighted the critical importance of the legal environment in explaining the choices that companies make about their capital structure This book combines company law capital markets law and aspects of commercial and insolvency law to give readers a detailed understanding of the legal and regulatory issues relating to corporate finance Informed by insights from theoretical and empirical work the book examines from a legal perspective the key elements of corporate financing structures and capital markets in the UK The authors' practical experience of transactions and regulatory issues ensures that thorough scholarly inquiry and critical reflection are complemented by an assured understanding of the interface between legal principles and rules as they are documented and in their actual operation Key developments covered in this third edition include the post Brexit adaptation of UK company law and capital market regulation important new cases on parent company liability in tort creditor facing duties of directors issuer and director liability for misleading statements to the market alternatives to public market financing and recent changes in the practice of debt finance such as the emergence of non bank lenders Architecture and Retrenchment Helena Mattsson,2023-01-26 Shortlisted for the Architects Sweden Critics Award 2023 Scholars in architectural and urban history have over the last decade been trying to come to terms with architecture's neoliberal turn and its various impacts from municipal policy to the artistic imagination However most scholarship has focussed on generalizations with very little work to date focussing on specific cases Architecture and Retrenchment brings one such case to the fore investigating the relation between architecture and the Swedish Model of the welfare state It tracks the response of architecture to the gradual retrenchment and ultimate dismantling of the Swedish welfare state which was in its heyday world famous for its integration of architecture and the built environment into the welfare system Ultimately neoliberal economics prevailed yet this book reveals how new architectural strategies and techniques were developed in order to protect the agency of architecture in the newly reorganised society of the 1980s and 1990s Through eight in depth case studies the book situates the often abstract

generalised discourse of neoliberalism and privatisation in specific architectural sites and provides an original interpretation of how architecture space aesthetics and politics converged at the end of the twentieth century Yearbook of
