Ford--100, 2003 Automotive News, 2006 Financialization and Strategy

Julie Froud, Sukhdev Johal, Adam Leaver, Karel Williams, 2006-04-18 Considering the recent impact of the capital market on corporate strategy this text analyzes through argument and supportive case studies how pressures from the capital bull market of the 1990s and bear market of the early 2000s have reshaped management action and calculation in large publicly quoted US and UK corporations Beginning with the dissatisfaction with classical strategy and its limited engagement with the processes of financialization the book moves on to cover three detailed company case studies General Electric Ford and GlaxoSmithKline which use long run financial data and analysis of company and industry narratives to illustrate and explore key themes The book emphasizes the importance of company and industry narrative while also analyzing long term financial results and helps to explain the limits of management action and the burden of expectations placed on corporate governance Presenting financial and market information on trajectory in an accessible way this book provides a distinctive critical social science account of management in large UK and US corporations and it is a valuable resource for students scholars and researchers of business management political economy and non mainstream economics short listed for the 2007 IPEG Book Prize

The Impacts of Automotive Plant Closure Andrew Beer,Holli Evans,2013-09-13 Economic restructuring has been a notable feature of so called mature industrial economies such as the UK and Australia in the last two decades with deregulation privatisation technological change and globalisation combining to reshape such economies Some industries have grown while others have declined Moreover while overall employment in the UK and Australia has grown many newly created positions require skills not found in the industries shedding labour or are in casualised and low paid occupations Many lesser skilled workers leaving declining industries are therefore at risk of long term unemployment or leaving the workforce entirely Both mental and physical health can be affected after redundancy It is therefore crucial that the measures put in place in many domains of social policy such as formal health policy employment assistance community development housing assistance and so on to adequately address the difficulties confronting this group This volume takes a closer look at the impact of manufacturing notably automotive plant closures in the UK Birmingham and Australia Adelaide in recent years and policy responses to those closures It attempts to tease out differences in policy response and effectiveness and attempts to identify areas where policy could be made to work better in terms of adjusting to large scale manufacturing change and resulting job losses In so doing it begins for the first time we believe to take a comparative approach to understanding the impact of plant closures and policy responses This book was published as a special issue of Policy Studies

A Focused Issue on Identifying, Building and Linking Competences Ron Sanchez,Aimé Heene,2010-05-26 Features a collection of papers that explores the challenges in identifying building and linking competences within and between organizations This title includes a paper that describes a facilitated process through which managers may identify an organization s competences It also explains basic issues in building organizational competence

Forbes ,2005 Time for a Model Change Graeme P. Maxton,John Wormald,2004-11-04 The automotive industry ranks among the most significant business phenomena of the 20th century and remains vitally important today accounting for almost 11% of the GDP of North America Europe and Japan and one in nine jobs In economic and social terms alike its products have had a fundamental impact on modern society for better and worse Yet the industry has found it hard to adjust to recent challenges and is no longer much valued by the capital markets It is riven with internal contradictions that inhibit reform and faces a stark choice between years of strife or radical change This book is a wake up call for those who work in the automotive business It highlights the challenges and opportunities that exist for managers legislators financial institutions and potential industry entrants Most of all it gives us all cause to reflect on the value of our mobility today and tomorrow
