head on together The past five years of Hannah s life have challenged her both mentally and physically Despite experiencing major loss and several spinal fractures requiring major surgery her dynamic spirit and big smile light up the room For most of his life Chuck felt spiritually lost having experienced a church upbringing that missed the most important aspect of Christianity a personal relationship with Jesus He struggled for years until he experienced a Stage 4 end of life cancer diagnosis Jesus showed up and touched him and redirected Chuck s passion and purpose in life blessing him with Hannah as his partner and wife As co founders of Living Hope Cancer Foundation www.GetUpandLive.org Chuck and Hannah work to fill a niche that is missing in the cancer field the healing power of a positive mindset Their individual books Hi I m Chuck and Faith Like Skin were written before they met and have inspired so many people with and without cancer Get Up and Live is the sequel of sorts telling of their miraculous meeting and how Chuck and Hannah s faith has given them strength in their unbelievable journey Whether through a short or long miracle their purpose in this beautiful life is to get closer to Jesus and show everyone how to get up and live despite life s challenges

Global Trajectories of Brazilian Religion Martijn

Oosterbaan,Linda van de Kamp,Joana Bahia,2019-10-03 This book explores the proliferation and spread of Brazilian born religious forms and practices throughout the world The global diffusion of Brazilian religions provides an excellent lens to understand contemporary religious forms As the book shows religious movements as diverse as Santo Daime Candomblé Capoeira John of God and Brazilian style Pentecostalism and Catholicism have become immensely popular in many places outside Brazil This global spread is not merely the result of Brazilian migrants taking their religions abroad it is also due to global media and to spiritual seekers travelling to and from Brazil Global Trajectories of Brazilian Religion demonstrates that in a dynamic space of historical and cultural production Brazil is imagined and re created as an authentic spiritual and sensual place that functions as the center for various global religions To understand the new cross fertilizations between religion life style tourism and migration this book introduces the notion of Lusospheres a term that refers to the historical Portuguese colonial reach yet signals the contemporary modes of cultural interaction in a different geo political age

Porter, 2021-03-22 The relationship between musical activity and ethical significance occupies long traditions of thought and reflection both within Christianity and beyond From concerns regarding music and the passions in early Christian writings through to moral panics regarding rock music in the 20th century Christians have often gravitated to the view that music can become morally weighted building a range of normative practices and prescriptions upon particular modes of ethical judgment But how should we think about ethics and Christian musical activity in the contemporary world As studies of Christian musicking have moved to incorporate the experiences agencies and relationships of congregations ethical questions have become implicit in new ways in a range of recent research how do communities negotiate questions of value in music How are processes of encounter with a variety of different others negotiated through musical activity What responsibilities arise within musical communities This volume seeks to expand this conversation Divided into four sections the book covers the relationship of Christian musicking to the body responsibilities and values identity and encounter and notions of the self The result is a wide ranging perspective on music as an ethical practice particularly as it relates to contemporary religious and spiritual communities This collection is an important milestone at the intersection of ethnomusicology musicology religious studies and theology It will be a vital reference for scholars and practitioners reflecting on the values and practices of worshipping communities in the contemporary world
