of the birth of modern Europe Wild Goddesses in India and Nepal Axel Michaels, Cornelia Vogelsanger, Annette Wilke, 1996 She kills and destroys She causes illness and disaster The wild goddess evokes fear and terror People worship her with blood sacrifices and alcohol in order to appease her rage but also in order to participate in her power for she is at once a force of destruction and a force of regeneration of life and of sexuality Her creative violence reflects the ambivalent power of nature The idea of frightening goddesses is preserved in regionally different forms throughout South Asia The Institute for the Science of Religions University of Berne and the Museum of Anthropology of the University of Zurich coordinated a symposium on wild goddesses in India and Nepal The papers and reports on ongoing research presented at this symposium are published in this volume Bridging the Gap: Disciplines, Times, and Spaces in Dialogue - Volume 3 Costanza Coppini, Georg Cyrus, Hamaseh Golestaneh, 2022-09-15 Three volumes present the proceedings of the 6th Broadening Horizons Conference which took place at the Freie Universität Berlin from 24-28 June 2019 This volume Volume 3 contains 14 papers from Session 4 Crossing Boundaries Connectivity and Interaction and Session 6 Landscape and Geography Human Dynamics and Perceptions King Seneb-Kay's Tomb and the Necropolis of a Lost Dynasty at Abydos Josef Wegner, Kevin Cahail, 2021-08-20 This volume is the publication and analysis of the tomb of pharaoh Seneb Kay ca 1650-1600 BCE and a cemetery of associated tombs at Abydos all attributable to a group of kings of Egypt's Second Intermediate Period The tomb of Seneb Kay has provided the first known king's tomb of pharaonic Egypt that included decorated imagery in the burial chamber That evidence presented in full color and discussed in detail in the volume allows us to identify this previously unknown ruler along with a group of seven similar tombs that can be attributed to an Upper Egyptian Dynasty that survived for approximately half a century during a period of pronounced territorial fragmentation in the Nile Valley The book examines the architecture and artifacts associated with these tombs as well as presents an osteological analysis of the bodies of Seneb Kay and the other anonymous individuals buried at South Abydos Seneb Kay's skeletonized mummy was recovered inside his tomb and provides a rare opportunity to examine the body of a king of this era He is the earliest substantially preserved body of an Egyptian king to survive in the archaeological record and the first known Egyptian pharaoh whose skeletal remains show that he died in battle The analysis of his death in a military encounter along with insights from the other skeletal remains indicates a line of kings whose rise to power was associated with their social background as members of the military elite The book examines the wider implications of these bodies in terms of the pronounced militarization of society in the Second Intermediate Period Seneb Kay's tomb has also provided extensive evidence through its use of reused blocks bearing decoration of earlier elite and royal monuments at Abydos The combination of evidence provides a new archaeological and historical window into the political situation that defined Egypt's Second Intermediate Period "We Three" Laura Annawyn Shamas, 2007 Original Scholarly Monograph Illuminating Osiris Richard Jasnow, Ghislaine Widmer, 2017-01-03 Illuminating Osiris comprises twenty-seven articles by students, friends, and colleagues in honor of Mark Smith Professor of Egyptology at the University of Oxford Smith is especially renowned as a Demoticist and specialist in ancient Egyptian religion His numerous Demotic text editions and translations of Egyptian funerary and religious compositions have been enormously influential in the field The contributions in Illuminating Osiris naturally reflect Smith's particular interests in the religion and literature of Graeco-Roman period Egypt dealing with cult rituals astronomy and divination among other subjects The book includes many editions or reeditions of texts written in Demotic Hieratic and Ptolemaic Hieroglyphs It is profusely illustrated and supplied with detailed indices Epic Mythology E. Washburn Hopkins, 1984-01-01 This volume strikes a new note in the study of Indian epics the Ramayana and the Mahabharata In it for the first time mythology is dissociated from the running threads of both the epic texts The mythology of the two epics of India represents in general the belief of the people of Northern India along the lower Ganges within a few centuries of the Christian era For the Mahabharata the time from 300 B C to 400 A D The Mahabharata as a whole is later than the Ramayana which is metrically more advanced and the work of one author The rougher epic form of the Mahabharata represents a life less rude than depicted in the Ramayana and work of many hands and of different times Epic mythology is however fairly consistent There is no great discrepancy between the character of any one god in the Mahabharata and that of the same god in Ramayana Nor is the character of gods very different in different parts of the Mahabharata save for the sectarian tendency to invert the positions of the three highest gods in favour of the sect Epic
