Gavin, 2025-09-04 An approachable guide to the political social and demographic changes happening in Africa and why they matter for the rest of the world Africa is undergoing an astounding transformation that will usher in a new era of political volatility and experimentation in the coming years The region is in the midst of a historically unprecedented demographic surge that has skewed the median age in most countries to below twenty years old This demographic moment coincides with three factors likely to amplify the political agendas of African youth rapid urbanization dramatically increased digital connectivity and increasing recognition that old political narratives are no longer fit for purpose Michelle D Gavin argues that these clear trends will result in an increase in political volatility Anti government movements will continue to find new expression incumbents will be more vulnerable honeymoon periods for new leaders will be shorter and transfers of power and leadership will be more frequent Citizens frustrated by the status quo will show more willingness to experiment with different forms of government and different external partnerships all with significant implications for those hoping for a global democratic resurgence This book explores growing dissatisfaction and desire for change as the political through line emerging on a diverse continent and illuminates some of the frustrated defiant and often humorous pan African political conversations underway among young politically engaged populations What is coming will be dramatically different from the period of political stagnation that has characterized the past two decades in the region and that also means that major powers like the United States Russia and China that are competing for influence in the region will have to change the way they do business

A Dictionary of English Authors, Biographical and Bibliographical Robert Farquharson Sharp, 1904 English Reports in Law and Equity Edmund Hatch Bennett, Chauncey Smith, 1852 English Theatre, 1821 The Letters of Sarah Harriet Burney Sarah Harriet Burney, 1997 This scholarly edition presents for the first time all of the known surviving letters of British novelist Sarah Harriet Burney 1772 1884 The overwhelming majority of these letters more than ninety percent have never before been published Burney s accomplishments says Lorna J Clark have been unjustly overlooked She published five works of fiction between 1796 and 1839 all of which met with reasonable success including Traits of Nature 1812 which sold out within three months These letters position Burney among her fellow women writers and shed light on her relations with her publisher and her ambivalence toward her own work and her readership Her lively observation of the literary scene evinces the range and scope of her reading as well as her awareness of literary trends and developments Burney was for example remarkably prescient in recognizing and praising from the first the talent of Jane Austen and met several of the authors of her day A challenging new perspective on family matters also emerges in the letters The youngest child of the second marriage of Charles Burney and the only daughter to remain unmarried Sarah Harriet had the unenviable task of caring for her father in his later years Her letters reveal a darker side of Dr Burney and also help to round out our image of a more favored daughter Sarah Harriet s half sister and fellow novelist Frances Burney As literature Clark observes Burney s letters are arguably her best work Thoroughly versed in the epistolary arts she sought always to amuse and entertain her correspondents Burney ultimately emerges as a quiet but heroic single woman relegated to the margins of society where she struggled for independence and self respect Displaying literary qualities and a lively sense of humor the letters provide a fascinating insight into the literary political and social life of the day A Dictionary of English Authors, Biographical and Bibliographical; Being a Compendious Account of the Lives and Writings of 700 British Writers from the Year 1400 to the Present Time Robert Farquharson Sharp, 1897
