Going The Distance English Edition:

Going the Distance Ron Harris, 2020-02-11 Long distance oceanic and overland trade along the Eurasian landmass in the 1400s was largely dominated by Chinese Indian and Arabic traders and predominantly conducted over short trajectories by sole traders or organized around small scale enterprises Yet within two centuries of Europeans arrival in the Indian Ocean in 1498 long distance trade throughout Eurasia was mainly taken over by them By 1700 they had formed new large scale and impersonal organizations primarily a joint stock business corporation between English East India Company EIC and Dutch East India Company VOC This allowed them to transform trade from an enterprise dominated by many small traders moving goods over short segments to a vertically integrated firm that was able to control goods from their origin to the end consumers This rise of the business corporation proved essential for the economic rise of Europe Why did the corporation arise indigenously only in Europe and given its effective organization of long distance trade why wasn't it mimicked by other Eurasian civilizations for 300 years Harris closely examines the role played by forms of organization in the transformation of Eurasian trade between 1400 and 1700 comparing the organizational forms that were used in four major civilizations Chinese Indian Middle Eastern and Western European Through this comparative perspective he argues that the organizational design of the EIC and VOC the first long lasting joint stock corporations enabled large scale multilateral impersonal cooperation for the first time in human history He also argues that this new organizational form enabled the English and Dutch to deploy more capital more ships more voyages and more agents than other organizational forms

Going the Distance Michael Joyce, 2013-10-01 His major league baseball dreams dashed a former pitcher returns home to make a life or death family decision I Will Go the Distance Jacob J. Akol, 2005 Olympic Collision Kyle Keiderling, 2016-11 It remains one of the most memorable moments in modern Olympic history At the 1984 summer games in Los Angeles a raucous crowd of ninety thousand saw their favorite in the women's 3 000 meter race Mary Decker go down An audience of two billion around the world witnessed the mishap and listened to the instantaneous accusations against the suspected culprit Zola Budd Just seventeen the South African Budd had already been the target of a vicious and vocal campaign by the antiapartheid lobby after she transferred to the British team in order to compete at the games Decker at twenty six was America's golden girl ready to overcome years of bad luck and injuries to rightfully take the Olympic gold for which she had waited so long With three laps to go Decker and Budd's feet became tangled Decker went down and didn't get up wailing in primal agony as her gold medal hopes vanished Decker's stumbles continued in the race's aftermath when she refused Budd's apology and race officials found her not Budd at fault for the collision Although both women found success after the Olympics neither could escape the long shadow of the infamous event that forever changed both of their lives and defines them in popular culture to this day Olympic Collision follows Decker and Budd through their lives and careers telling the story behind the controversy the account that emerges is certain to revise the view Americans in particular have held since that fateful day in Los Angeles more than thirty years ago Olympic Collision relives one of the most famous incidents in Olympic history its legacy and what has happened to both athletes since

The Organization of Distance Lucas Klein,2018-07-17 What makes a Chinese poem Chinese Some call modern Chinese poetry insufficiently Chinese saying it is so influenced by foreign texts that it has lost the essence of Chinese culture as known in premodern poetry Yet that argument overlooks how premodern regulated verse was itself created in imitation of foreign poetics Looking at Bian Zhilin and Yang Lian in the twentieth century alongside medieval Chinese poets such as Wang Wei Du Fu and Li Shangyin The Organization of Distance applies the notions of foreignization and nativization to Chinese poetry to argue that the impression of poetic Chineseness has long been a product of translation from forces both abroad and in the past Lloyd's Encyclopaedic Dictionary ,1896 Renaissance Go-Betweens Andreas Höfele,Werner von Koppenfels,2011-12-22 The volume analyses some of the travelling and bridge building activities that went on in Renaissance Europe mainly but not exclusively across the Channel true to Montaigne's epoch making program of describing the passage Its emphasis on Anglo Continental relations ensures a firm basis in English literature but its particular appeal lies in its European point of view and in the perspectives it opens up into other areas of early modern culture such as pictorial art philosophy and economics The multiple implications of the go between concept make for structured diversity The chapters of this book are arranged in three stages Part 1 Mediators focuses on influential go betweens both as groups like the translators and as individual mediators The second part of this book Mediations is concerned with individual acts of mediation and with the mental topographies they presuppose reflect and redraw in their turn Part 3 Representations looks at the role of exemplary intermediaries and the workings of mediation represented on the early modern English stage Key features High quality anthology on phenomena of cultural exchange in the Renaissance era With contributions by outstanding international experts Éirinn & Iran go Brách Mansour Bonakdarian,2023-12-05 This book analyzes particular patterns of nationalist self configuration and nationalist uses of memory counter memory and historical amnesia in Ireland from roughly around the time of the emergence of a broad based non sectarian Irish nationalist platform in the late eighteenth century the Society of United Irishmen until Ireland's partition and the founding of the Irish Free State in 1922 In approaching Irish nationalism through the particular historical lens of Iran this book underscores the fact that Irish nationalism during this period and even earlier always utilized a historical paradigm that grounded Anglo Irish encounters and Irish nationalism in the broader world history a process that I term worlding of Ireland In effect Irish nationalism was always politically and culturally cosmopolitan in outlook in some formulations even in the case of many nationalists who resorted to insular and narrowly defined exclusionary ethnic and or religious formulations of the Irish nation Irish nationalists as nationalists in many other parts of the world recurrently imagined their own history either in contrast to or as reflected in the histories of peoples and lands elsewhere even while claiming the historical uniqueness of the Irish experience Present in a wide range of Irish nationalist political cultural and historical utterances were assertions of past and or present affinities with other peoples and lands Walking Distance Robert Ortiz,2016-05-14 Friday Night Lights meets Jarhead in this extraordinary journey Walking Distance Fields of Battle is an admirable and inspirational account of a young man chasing after his dreams while finding answers to his existence through the realities of life The book travels from the
