Knickerbocker, 2017-03-15 Young adults are actively looking for anything that connects them with the changes happening in their lives and the books discussed throughout Literature for Young Adults have the potential to make that connection and motivate them to read It explores a great variety of works genres and formats but it places special emphasis on contemporary works whose nontraditional themes protagonists and literary conventions make them well suited to young adult readers It also looks at the ways in which contemporary readers access and share the works they re reading and it shows teachers ways to incorporate nontraditional ways of accessing and sharing books throughout their literature programs In addition to traditional genre chapters Literature for Young Adults includes chapters on literary nonfiction poetry short stories and drama cover art picture books illustrated literature and graphic novels and film It recognizes that while films can be used to complement print literature they are also a literacy format in their own right and one that young adults are particularly familiar and comfortable with The book s discussion of literary language including traditional elements as well as metafictional terms enables readers to share in a literary conversation with their students and others when communicating about books It will help readers teach young adults the language they need to articulate their responses to the books they are reading

“A” Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors, Living and Deceased, from the Earliest Accounts to the Latter Half of the Nineteenth Century S. Austin Allibone, 1891 Cultural Imperialism and the Indo-English Novel Fawzia Afzal-Khan, 2010-11-01 This is a provocative piece of scholarship and it engages an intriguing aspect of postcolonial writing Choice Fawzia Afzal Khan s excellent book could stand as a reply to those hostile critics who today attack multiculturalism for reductively politicizing literature In her trenchant discussion Afzal Khan shows just how complex the politics of liberation can be for colonial and postcolonial novelists Gerald Graff University of Chicago Afzal Khan s study is a major new contribution to the related fields of Indian writing in English and post colonial literatures Focused primarily on four Indian novelists its arguments and conclusions are of vital importance to our understanding of the many new literatures from the former British colonies Through her judicious use of the theoretical constructs of Frantz Fanon Fredric Jameson Edward Said and others Afzal Khan has produced a fresh and compelling interpretation of the Indian English novel Amritjit Singh Rhode Island College Cultural Imperialism and the Indo English Novel focuses on the novels of R K Narayan Anita Desai Kamala Markandaya and Salman Rushdie and explores the tension in these novels between ideology and the generic fictive strategies that shape ideology or are shaped by it Fawzia Afzal Khan raises the important question of how much the usage of certain ideological strategies actually helps the ex colonized writer deal effectively with post colonial and post independence trauma and whether or not the choice of a particular genre or mode employed by a writer presupposes the extent to which that writer will be successful in challenging the ideological strategies of containment perpetuated by most Western orientalist texts and writers She argues that the formal or generic choices of the four writers studied here reveal that they are using genre as an ideological strategy of liberation to help free their peoples and cultures from the hegemonic strategies of containment imposed upon them She concludes that the works studied here constitute an ideological rebuttal of Western writers denigrating containment of non Western cultures She also notes that self criticism as implied in Rushdie's works is not to be confused with self-hatred, a theme found in Naipaul's work. A Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors, Living and Deceased, from the Earliest Accounts to the Latter Half of the Nineteenth Century Samuel Austin Allibone, 1871 A Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors Samuel Austin Allibone, 1899 A Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors Allibone, 1874 A critical dictionary of English literature, and British and American authors living and deceased Samuel Austin Allibone, 1877 Classified English Prose Fiction San Francisco Public Library, 1891 A Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors S.
