

Business strategies: How Wal-Mart

References

- To succeed in an action for battery the Plaintiff must prove on Balance of probabilities that:
 - D caused some form of "physical interference" with his/her person.
 - The interference was direct;
 - The act was intentional or negligent; and
 - There was no "consent" of lawful justification for such conduct.
 - i) Direct application of physical force
 - Any unwanted contact, no matter how trivial is battery: Collins v Wilcock
 - Need not be hostile or done in anger: Coll v Turner
 - Not limited to bodily contact: Sherwell v Bradford
 - Interference followed so closely by D's act that it could be considered part of the act (can be an unbroken series of consequences): Scott v Shepherd
 - Smith v Shepherd: D threw lighted gun powder squibs at market, in a series of throwing by others to avoid injury it hit P in the face and took out his eye. Held: injury was direct result of D's action. D was liable in battery
 - Act of D must be active and not passive (e.g. blocking a door entirely passively or like a wall would not constitute battery): Irwin v Hyde
 - ii) Fault
 - There is no liability unless the act is done intentionally or negligently: Coll v Turner
 - D must bring about the action consciously which result in battery: McNairne v Dawson; In this case court held that P did not consent to blow struck by D when he had let go off the ball in AFL match
 - Knowledge of contact is not essential: Murray v Ministry
 - Stone v Star City Centre: D placed hand on P shoulder to get his attention – no battery
 - iii) Consent
 - If P has consented to the act, then there is no battery: McNairne v Dawson
 - But consent must be given freely and without fraud or duress: R v Williams
 - Sports have implied consent unless it is outside the rules of the game: McNairne v Dawson
 - Conduct part of everyday life is no battery: Collins v Wilcock
 - In medical emergency, it is permissible to give medical treatment without consent, "subject to knowledge of any refusal by patient": Reper v Wharfedale
 - In case of incompetent persons, guardian can give consent: Commonwealth Administration Act 2006 (Vic)
