A genre defining and redefining collection of the boldest, most rebellious and most prescient speculative fiction featuring stories from all over the globe. The sky above the port was the color of television tuned to a dead channel. Almost forty years ago William Gibson wrote the line that began Neuromancer and a movement that would change the face of science fiction. Award winning anthologist Jared Shurin brings together over a hundred stories from more than twenty-five countries that both establish and subvert the classic cyberpunk tropes and aesthetic from gritty near future noir to pulse-pounding action. Urban rebels undermine monolithic corporate overlords. Daring heists are conducted through back alleys and the darkest parts of the online world. There's dangerous new technology, cybernetic enhancements, scheming AI, corporate mercenaries, improbable weapons and roguish hackers. These tales examine the near now, extrapolating the most provocative trends into fascinating and plausible futures. We live in an increasingly cyberpunk world packed with complex technologies and globalized social trends. A world so bizarre that even futurists couldn't explain it, though many authors in this book have come closer than most. As both an introduction to the
