Minerals Yearbook ,2009      What They Do With Your Money Stephen Davis,Jon Lukomnik,David

Pitt-Watson,2016-05-24 Each year we pay billions in fees to those who run our financial system The money comes from our bank accounts our pensions our borrowing and often we aren t told that the money has been taken These billions may be justified if the finance industry does a good job but as this book shows it too often fails us Financial institutions regularly place their business interests first charging for advice that does nothing to improve performance employing short term buying strategies that are corrosive to building long term value and sometimes even concealing both their practices and their investment strategies from investors In their previous prizewinning book The New Capitalists the authors demonstrated how ordinary people are working together to demand accountability from even the most powerful corporations Here they explain how a tyranny of errant expertise naive regulation and a misreading of economics combine to impose a huge stealth tax on our savings and our economies More important the trio lay out an agenda for curtailing the misalignments that allow the financial industry to profit at our expense With our financial future at stake this is a book that analysts economists policy makers and anyone with a retirement nest egg can t afford to ignore

Sick Schools David V. Anderson,2020-01-10 Who s afraid of for profit education Those who work in non profit or government owned and operated schools Many parents and other stakeholders have been made fearful by this education establishment What s more important to humans nutrition or education Nutrition is more important because it is the prerequisite for other human activities including education What organizations provide food and who pays for the food Food is provided by for profit farmers for profit processors for profit wholesalers and for profit retailers Most food is purchased with the consumers own money but a significant amount is purchased by low income individuals using food stamps Why can t education be provided similarly using education stamps We trust for profit enterprises to provide our food Why can t we trust for profit enterprises to provide K 12 education Fearmongers have frightened us and made us into gullible compliant socialists who despise commercial activities in education Go to the supermarket and ponder its marvelous array of foods and then contemplate how a for profit K 12 education sector would please and amaze its customers

The Case against Education Bryan Caplan,2019-08-20 Why we need to stop wasting public funds on education Despite being immensely popular and immensely lucrative education is grossly overrated Now with a new afterword by Bryan Caplan this explosive book argues that the primary function of education is not to enhance students skills but to signal the qualities of a good employee Learn why students hunt for easy As only to forget most of what they learn after the final exam why decades of growing access to education have not resulted in better jobs for average workers how employers reward workers for costly schooling they rarely ever use and why cutting education spending is the best remedy Romantic notions about education being good for the soul must yield to careful research and common sense The Case against Education points the way

Omelicheva, 2014-12-17 More than two decades after the break up of the Soviet Union Central Asian republics Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan continue to reexamine and debate whom and what they represent Nationalism and Identity Construction in Central Asia explores the complex and controversial process of identity formation in the region using a 3D framework which stands for Dimensions Dynamics and Directions of nation building The first part of the framework dimensions underscores the new and complex ways in which nationalisms and identities manifest themselves in Central Asia The second part dynamics is premised on the idea that nationalisms and identity construction in the Central Asian republics may indicate some continuities with the past but are more concerned with legitimation of the present power politics in these states It calls for the identification of the main actors strategies tactics interests and reactions to the processes of nationalism and identity construction The third part of the framework directions addresses implications of nationalisms and identity construction in Central Asia for regional and international peace and cooperation Jointly the chapters of the volume address domestic and international level dimensions dynamics and directions of identity formation in Central Asia What unites these works is their shared modern and post modern understanding of nations nationalisms and identities as discursive strategic and tactical formations They are viewed as constructed and imagined and therefore continuously changing but also fragmented and contested
