Dislocating the Orient Daniel Foliard, 2017-04-13 While the twentieth century s conflicting visions and exploitation of the Middle East are well documented the origins of the concept of the Middle East itself have been largely ignored With Dislocating the Orient Daniel Foliard tells the story of how the land was brought into being exploring how maps knowledge and blind ignorance all participated in the construction of this imagined region Foliard vividly illustrates how the British first defined the Middle East as a geopolitical and cartographic region in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries through their imperial maps Until then the region had never been clearly distinguished from the East or the Orient In the course of their colonial activities however the British began to conceive of the Middle East as a separate and distinct part of the world with consequences that continue to be felt today As they reimagined boundaries the British produced disputed and finally dramatically transformed the geography of the area both culturally and physically over the course of their colonial era Using a wide variety of primary texts and historical maps to show how the idea of the Middle East came into being Dislocating the Orient will interest historians of the Middle East the British empire cultural geography and cartography

The Poverty of Television Jonathan Corpus Ong, 2015-05-15 Based on a 20 month ethnographic study of television and audiences in class divided Philippines this is the first book to take a bottom up approach in considering how people respond to images and narratives of suffering and poverty on television The book aims to contribute to the broader project of de Westernizing media studies and explore the tension between ethical prescription and anthropological description in the social sciences and humanities Winner of the 2016 Philippine Social Science Council Excellence in Research Award      Ageing Issues in India Mala Kapur Shankardass,2021-12-01 This book explores various practices and policies related to ageing issues in India It addresses ageing concerns from a theoretical and empirical viewpoint with in depth analyses of existential dimensions of ageing It provides deep insights into ageing in India by discussing demographics related to health and social differentials gender concerns retirement problems epidemiological transition taking place in the country with rising problem of dementia and mental health problems It consists of 23 chapters written by various established as well as upcoming scholars in the field The authors cover a broad range of topics with regard to provisions for institutional care geriatric practice and emerging issues of elder abuse The book will appeal to professionals and to lay people getting interested in ageing India from a social health gender economic psychological and emotional aspects      NCERT Geography Class 12 Dr. Chaturbhuj Mamoriya ,Dr. Abha Singh,2025-03-07 Part A Fundamentals of Human Geography 1 Human Geography Nature and Scope 2 Population of the World Distribution Density and Growth 2A Population Composition 3 Human Development 4 Primary Activities 5 Secondary Activities 6 Tertiary and Quaternary Activities 7 Transport and Communication 8 International Trade 8A Human Settlements Part B India People and Economy 1 Population Distribution Density Growth and Composition 1A Migration Types Causes and Consequences 1B Human Development 2 Human Settlements 3 Land Resources and Agriculture 4 Water Resources 5 Mineral and Energy Resources 5A Manufacturing Industries 6 Planning and Sustainable Development in Indian Context 7 Transport and Communication 8 International Trade 9 Geographical Perspective on Selected Issues and Problems Part C Practical Work 1 Data Source and Collection 2 Data Processing 3 Graphical Representation of Data 3A Use of Computer in Data Processing and Mapping 3B Field Surveys 4 Spatial Information Technology Competency Focused Questions with Answers Board Examination Papers      The Price of Nuclear Power Stephanie A. Malin,2015-05-21 Rising fossil fuel prices and concerns about greenhouse gas emissions are fostering a nuclear power renaissance and a revitalized uranium mining industry across the American West In The Price of Nuclear Power environmental sociologist Stephanie Malin offers an on the ground portrait of several uranium communities caught between the harmful legacy of previous mining booms and the potential promise of new economic development Using this context she examines how shifting notions of environmental justice inspire divergent views about nuclear power s sustainability and equally divisive forms of social activism Drawing on extensive fieldwork conducted in rural isolated towns such as Monticello Utah and Nucla and Naturita Colorado as well as in upscale communities like Telluride Colorado and incorporating interviews with community leaders environmental activists radiation regulators and mining executives Malin uncovers a fundamental paradox of the nuclear renaissance the communities most hurt by uranium s legacy such as high rates of cancers respiratory ailments and reproductive disorders were actually quick to support industry renewal She shows that many impoverished communities support mining not only because of the employment opportunities but also out of a personal identification with uranium a sense of patriotism and new notions of environmentalism But other communities such as Telluride have become sites of resistance skeptical of industry and government promises of safe mining fearing that regulatory enforcement won't be strong enough Indeed Malin shows that the nuclear renaissance has exacerbated social divisions across the Colorado Plateau threatening social cohesion Malin further illustrates ways in which renewed uranium production is not a socially sustainable form of energy development for rural communities as it is utterly dependent on unstable global markets The Price of Nuclear Power is an insightful portrait of the local impact of the nuclear renaissance and the social and environmental tensions inherent in the rebirth of uranium mining
