Seeding Buddhism with Multiculturalism D. Mitra Barua,2019-05-13 Immigrants often face considerable challenges when it comes to preserving their cultural and religious teachings D Mitra Barua argues that the Sri Lankan Buddhist community in Toronto has maintained its coherence and integrity not despite but because of the need for cultural adaptations Drawing on survey data over fifty in depth interviews with temple monks educators parents and children and fieldwork conducted in Toronto and Colombo Sri Lanka Seeding Buddhism with Multiculturalism examines how a religious tradition is transmitted from one generation to the next in a new cultural setting and what happens during that process of transmission Barua demonstrates that Buddhists have passed on Buddhist beliefs attitudes and practices to their Canadian born youth who in turn have constructed their own distinct Buddhist identity influenced by the individualistic egalitarian and secular cultural ambience in Toronto Through creative fieldwork and translocal analysis taking into account migrants geographical cultural and familial ties to multiple locales this book further explains that pre migration experiences often shape and determine the success or failure of intergenerational transmission An ethnographic religious study with an uncommon depth of perspective Seeding Buddhism with Multiculturalism shows that first and second generation Sri Lankan Buddhists in Toronto are successfully practising Theravada Buddhism within a Canadian context

Sri Lanka, the Ethnic Conflict ,1984      Globalisation, Employment and Education in Sri Lanka Angela W. Little,Siri T. Hettige,2014-05-23 Since the late 1970s Sri Lanka has undergone a socio economic transformation from protectionism towards economic liberalisation and increasing integration into the world economy Through a systematic comparison of these periods of economic change 1956 1977 and 1977 to the present Angela W Little and Siri T Hettige examine the impact of this transformation on education youth employment and equality of opportunity in Sri Lanka The book charts Sri Lanka s shift from a predominantly agricultural economy to one dominated by services and manufacturing a reduction in unemployment rising educational and occupational levels expectations and achievements and a reduction in poverty In turn it reveals a growing role for the private sector and foreign interests in post secondary education and a modest growth in private education at the primary and secondary levels as well as widening social disparities in access to qualifications training and skills The Sri Lankan experience of and engagement with globalisation has been tempered by a long running ethnic conflict that hindered economic and social development and diverted considerable public funds into defence and war Now that the war is won the challenge is how to invest in human resource development and the fulfilment of the expectations of youth from all ethnic and social groups This challenge requires serious policy analysis the generation of more state revenues the reallocation of existing public resources and a political commitment to the winning of a sustainable peace and stability This book makes an important contribution to the broader international literature on the implications of globalisation for education policy and practice and to the interaction of exogenous and endogenous forces for educational change It deals with the tension between the high social demand for education and the growing demand for specialised skills in a changing economy As such it has a wide interdisciplinary appeal across education policy and politics Asian education South Asian society youth policy sociology of education political economy of social change and globalisation
