The Canadian Short Story

Reingard M. Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada s flagship genre It continues to attract the country s most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre s beginnings through the twentieth century A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre s development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany

Reading Alice Munro with Jacques Lacan Jennifer Murray, 2016-10-01 It is unlikely that Jacques Lacan and Alice Munro were ever aware of each other s work Yet because of Munro s intuitive grasp of the complexities of human subjectivity and her ability to articulate subtleties and ambiguities her fiction shares many of the insights of Lacan s theoretical advancements of the same period They are both concerned with bringing the obscure undercurrents of the psyche to light Jennifer Murray s Reading Alice Munro with Jacques Lacan brings the works of the writer and the psychoanalyst into dialogue offering innovative interpretations of a selection of Munro s stories Approached from a Lacanian perspective a close reading of Munro s texts reveals the libidinal energy at the heart of the stories and offers particular insight into aspects such as shame and humiliation feelings that Munro presents with disconcerting acuity Taking into account stories both of childhood and of adult experiences Murray analyses the child s bewilderment as she confronts the incomprehensibility of parental injunctions and symbolic functions while stories about women later in life speak of subjectivity in the field of relationships where desire and love are central concerns Including extended reflections on fantasy sublimation persistence of purpose transmission love and the roles of both paternal and maternal figures in Munro s work Reading Alice Munro with Jacques Lacan also reshapes literary debate on feminine subjectivity and sexuality Reading Alice Munro's Breakthrough Books J.R. (Tim) Struthers,Ailsa Cox,Corinne Bigot,Catherine Sheldrick Ross, What in terms of Alice Munro s creative artistry and creative power allowed her to become the first and only short story writer the first and only Canadian and just the thirteenth woman in history to win the Nobel Prize in Literature And exactly when during Munro s career did her artistry and power advance to ensure that she would earn such world wide renown The answers lie in studying the boldly innovative yet greatly under examined group of her four mid career breakthrough books Our volume therefore provides a carefully orchestrated analysis of Munro s subtle yet potent handling of form technique and style both within individual stories and across these special collections Reading Alice Munro s Breakthrough Books A Suite in Four Voices not only addresses a significant vacancy in Munro criticism and by extension in all short story criticism but equally importantly offers an exciting new model for how criticism can be collectively written
