Reading Faces and Bodies: Behavioural and Neural Processes Underlying the Understanding of, and Interaction with, Others Paola Ricciardelli, Andrew P. Bayliss, Rossana Actis-Grosso, 2017-04-27 The aim of this Research Topic was to offer an interdisciplinary forum for researchers interested in the interplay of face eye gaze and body perception in the understanding of others with an emphasis on behavioural and neural processing The papers included in this topic come from cognitive neuroscience and social psychology perspectives and shed new light on how facial and body cues interact with each other and with social ecological and contextual factors such as for example social identification and group membership to form a unified representation that can guide our perceptions and responses to other people Altogether they provide an up to date picture of advances in this fascinating research field American Journal of Veterinary Research, 2014 Volumes for 1956 include selected papers from the proceedings of the American Veterinary Medical Association

Federal Register, 2012-04 Production Management and Business Development Bohuslava Mihalčová, Petra Szaryszová, Lenka Štofová, Michal Pružinský, Barbora Gontkovičová, 2018-12-07 Trends in economic development rely on increasing human knowledge which stimulate the development of new sophisticated technologies With their utilization production is raised and the intent is to decrease natural resources consumption and protect and save our life environment as much as we can At the same time increasing pressure is observed both from competition and customers The way to be competitive is by improving manufacturing and services offered to the customer These are the major challenges of contemporary enterprises Organizations are improving their activities and management processes This is necessary to manage the seemingly intensifying competitive markets successfully Enterprises apply business optimizing solutions to meet new challenges and conditions This way ensuring effective development for long term competitiveness in a global environment This is necessary for the implementation of qualitative changes in the industrial policy Process Control and Production Management MTS 2018 is a collection of research papers from an international authorship The authors present case studies and empirical research which illustrates the progressive trends in business process management and the drive to increase enterprise sustainability development Transition from Clinician to Educator Fressola, G. Elaine Patterson, 2016-08 The American Association of Colleges of Nursing AACN reports that in recent years U S nursing schools have turned away thousands of qualified applicants from baccalaureate and graduate nursing programs due to an insufficient number of faculty clinical sites classroom space clinical preceptors and budget constraints One potential group of faculty can be found in the clinical practitioner pool some of whom are awaiting the opportunity to transition into academic education This book is intended as a response to the needs of experienced clinicians lacking in academic preparation and experience in teaching This book covers the organizational world of academia classroom and clinical teaching and using technology in classrooms and clinical education preface Behavioral Science & Policy: Volume 2, Issue 2 Craig Fox, Sim B.

Sitkin,2017-06-27 The success of nearly all public and private sector policies hinges on the behavior of individuals groups and organizations Today such behaviors are better understood than ever thanks to a growing body of practical behavioral science research However policymakers often are unaware of behavioral science findings that may help them craft and execute more effective and efficient policies The pages of this new journal will become a meeting ground a place where scientists and non scientists can encounter clearly described behavioral research that can be put into action By design the scope of BSP is broad with topics spanning health care financial decisionmaking energy and the environment education and culture justice and ethics and work place practices Contributions will be made by researchers with expertise in psychology sociology law behavioral economics organization science decision science and marketing The journal is a key offering of the Behavioral Science Policy Association in partnership with the Brookings Institution The mission of BSPA is to foster dialog between social scientists policymakers and other practitioners in order to promote the application of rigorous empirical behavioral science in ways that serve the public interest BSPA does not advance a particular agenda or political perspective

Neuromyths: Debunking False Ideas About The Brain Tracey Tokuhama-Espinosa,2018-09-25 A guide to the science behind the art of teaching Not every teaching method touted as brain friendly is supported by research findings and misconceptions about the brain have the capacity to harm rather than help In her new book Tracey Tokuhama Espinosa untangles scientific fact from pedagogical fiction debunking dozens of widely held beliefs about the brain that have made their way into the education literature In ten central chapters on topics ranging from brain structure to classroom environments the text traces the origins of common neuromyths from categorizing individuals as right brained or left brained to prevailing beliefs about multitasking or the effects of video games and corrects the record with the most current state of knowledge Rather than offering pat strategies Tokuhama Espinosa challenges teachers curious about the brain to become learning scientists and supplies the tools needed to evaluate research and put it to use in the classroom University of Arkansas at Little Rock Law Review ,2013
