in culture is imperative An Echo of Silence kameel Ahmady,2021,ﻣﯧﺰﺑﯩﻦ ﻣﯧﺰﺑﯩﻦ An Echo of Silence A Comprehensive Research Study on Early Child Marriage ECM in Iran Kameel Ahmady Whilst working on the issue of female genital mutilation in Iran In the Name of Tradition in this book Kameel Ahmady also brought a focus to the early marriage of children and high rates of this harmful phenomenon in Iran He conducted a two year study on child marriage in the seven provinces of Khorasan Razavi East Azerbaijan Khuzestan Sistan and Baluchistan West Azerbaijan Hormozgan and Isfahan drawing on official country statistics The results of this research have been published in Farsi Kurdish and English languages According to the religious structure of Iran maturity for girls begins with the first monthly menstruation considered as the threshold of transition from childhood to adulthood which happens around age of 9 This physical and biological threshold means being able to marry regardless of the actual age and ability to govern your marital life Although early marriage applies to both young girls and boys in fact the bitter reality of the society indicates that the consequences and effects of the phenomenon of child marriage on girls are far more serious and dangerous Undoubtedly social investment in girls expanding their social and economic capital and ensuring their access to education and health services is a clear driver towards gender equality to provide for stronger communities but child marriage does the contrary A lack of independent and credible studies on child marriage in Iran means there is little information and data but according to the legal adviser of the Iranian Judiciary the official and state statistics suggest that between 500 to 600 thousand children per year Iran are getting married and these are only the statistics for marriages that officially registered without including those outside the formal marriage process Now there are around 14 000 child widows in the country and according to estimates from the United Nations 17 percent of all marriages in Iran are under the age of 18 Further some men who have more than one spouse in Iran do not register their child marriages and hide them This comprehensive research first attempts to analyse the prevalence of child marriage in Iran with an emphasis on socio cultural factors that reflect the profound and deep rooted inequalities which have contributed to the persistence of child marriage in Iran The scientific reason for doing this research is to explain the evidence and prevalence of this traumatic practice in Iran and to assist government decision makers in focusing on the immediate protection of these children s human rights This book as an effort to expose and deepen understandings of the issue of child marriage in Iran has attracted the attention of civil activists government policymakers and some parliamentary representatives and MPs It has provided the background to proposals for raising the minimum age for child marriage amending Article 1041 of the Civil Code This proposal was approved by the House of Representatives in an emergency and with a majority of votes but unanimously rejected by the Majlis Legal and Judicial Commission As the only fieldwork study these research findings were predicated on producing civil society advocacy and the need for parliament to amend the law In the community level the research has raised a wave of public awareness leading to a serious civil society demand for a ban on child marriage and raising the age of marriage from 13 to 16 for girls and from 15 to 18 for boys early_child_marriage
